

Competent Authority comments on the draft report, received 4/7/2013

ANNEX

Corrections to the contents of the report:

Report Reference	Draft Report	Comments / Corrections requested	Reason
5.4.4 Laboratories for Pesticide Residue Analysis	A National Reference Laboratory (NRL) in Ankara is designated for pesticides residues in Turkey.	A National Reference Laboratory is a reputable national and international well-known laboratory that is a guide for laboratories working in the field of food safety, researches for the development of quality, diversity, reliability of food analysis.	Correction
5.4.4 Laboratories for Pesticide Residue Analysis / Analytical spectrum and methods	The scope accreditation of the laboratory in Antalya covers 61 active substances, although the total analytical scope covers 222 active substances.	The scope accreditation of the laboratory in Antalya covers 161 active substances, although the total analytical scope covers 361 active substances.	Correction