

Curriculum Vitae

ANTOON GIJSENS

Policy officer, DG Sanco, European Commission

Personal details :

Antoon GijSENS

Born 28 May 1972

Married

Belgian citizenship

Work experience:

2006 – now: Policy officer, European Commission, Directorate-General Health & Consumer Protection, Directorate Public Health and Risk Assessment, Unit Health Threats activities: influenza pandemic preparedness, medicinal products, anti-microbial resistance

2002 – 2006: Scientific administrator, European Medicines Agency, Unit Pre-Authorisation of Medicines, Sector Quality of Medicines activities: vaccines, secretary Vaccine Working Party, biotechnological medicines, access to medicines for developing countries, influenza pandemic preparedness and business continuity planning

2001-2002: Senior researcher, Ministry of the Flemish Community, Department Science, Innovation and Media, Administration Science and Innovation activities: incentives for science and innovation in Flanders, benchmarking of Flemish research institutions

Education :

1995 – 2000 : PhD in Pharmaceutical Sciences (University of Leuven, Belgium)

1990 – 1995: Studies of Pharmacy (University of Leuven, Belgium)

1984 – 1990: Secondary school, Latin-Mathematics (St.-Jozefscollege Aalst, Belgium)