

Susana 66

1. Total ban on smoking in public spaces and at work.

We all have a right to protection of our health.

As citizens, we are all equal. Hotel and catering workers have the right to work in healthy environments.

2. Binding legislation would be the most appropriate strategy. There must be legal recognition of Europeans' right to health.

3. Experience of antismoking legislation shows that such regulations have no negative effects of any sort. The only effects are positive ones.

4. As a comment I would point out the need for control bodies to ensure that European countries are enforcing the laws that protect citizens from environmental tobacco smoke.

Thank you very much for your attention.

This paper represents the views of its author on the subject. These views have not been adopted or in any way approved by the Commission and should not be relied upon as a statement of the Commission's or Health & Consumer Protection DG's views. The European Commission does not guarantee the accuracy of the data included in this paper, nor does it accept responsibility for any use made thereof.