

Elisabeth Niggemann, born in Dortmund.

She is the Director General of the German National Library. She took up this position in 1999.

In 2005 she was elected Chairperson of the "Conference of European National Librarians" (CENL), and since end 2007 she also became Chairperson of the European Digital Library Foundation, managing Europeana (Europe's digital library, archive and museum).