Programa Escolhas

Programa Escolhas (Choices Programme) aims to support the social inclusion of children and young people from the most socio-economically disadvantaged contexts, mainly descendants of immigrants and ethnical minorities.

An overview

- Began in 2001;
- Governmental programme managed by the Presidency of the Council of Ministers. It is integrated in the High Commission for Immigration and Intercultural Dialogue (ACIDI, IP).
- It is now in its third phase, from 2007 to 2009;
- It is a bottom-up approach that funds, supports and evaluates local projects;
- 121 projects are being supported on a national level.

Target Groups

- Children and young people from 6 to 24 from disadvantaged contexts;
- Early school leavers, without basic levels of education (9 years);
- Immigrant descendants and ethnical minorities;
- Children and young people at risk or young offenders;
- Parents;
- Others, when relevant to the project.
