Europe's premier case law service launched

On 1 June 2007, Caselex s.a.r.l has launched Europe's premier Internet service offering national and European court cases linked to EU law.

Cases from EU and EFTA

The initial offering covers intellectual property law, labour law, competition law and company law. Its cases cover the Supreme Courts of the EU Member States and the EFTA Member States. The European Court of Justice, the European Court of First Instance and the EFTA Court of Justice will follow suit.

Pan-European coverage of all commercial areas of law

The current coverage of 14 countries will during the next 12 months be expanded to cover all the 27 EU Member States plus the 4 EFTA States. 11 additional areas of law will be added.

Unique case digests

Caselex identifies and selects only cases with cross-border relevance, i.e. linked to EU law. For each selected case it offers a case digest in English, including headnote and summary. All are coherently produced to the point, allowing the user to quickly and easily capture the essence regardless of prior knowledge about the jurisdiction or language.

Free trial

Caselex is a practical tool for legal professionals in need of solutions to national and international legal issues connected to EU law. As such it is essential for judges and court staff, barristers and solicitors, in-house legal counsel, public prosecutors, policy makers, legal information managers, paralegals, legal researchers, academics and law students. Free trials are offered.

About Caselex

Caselex is the first premium information service to offer access to the most important national and European case law linked to the European Union's commercial areas of law, without need for extensive multilingual and multinational legal skills. An easy to use service holding unique case digests allows legal professionals to easily use foreign cases relevant to their work or study.

The service is supported by the European Commission, the Council of Bars and Law Societies of Europe (CCBE), the European Company Lawyers Association (ECLA) and the European Association of Judges (EAJ).
