13:25 Conference closing - Ina Gudele, Minister for Special Assignments for Electronic Government Affairs, Latvia

Ina Gudele closed the Conference by thanking the Austrian Presidency, the European Commission, and the Delegates, for making the event a success. There had been 620 attendees from 45 nations, and 34 nations had committed themselves to the Ministerial Declaration. She looked forward now to work that created the ideal regulatory and legislative environment to maximise investment and commercial innovation of eInclusion ICTs.
