

Peer REview for Publication & Accreditation of Research Data in the Earth sciences (PREPARDE)

- Best practices in data citation
- Building workflows from all viewpoints (researcher, publisher, data center manager)
 - Who controls which process?
- What makes a repository trustworthy?
- Peer review of data – recommendations, best practices, practical solutions
- Engagement
 - contribution to human knowledge
 - bring in key stakeholders to new insights and roles
 - building trust and reliability
 - new collaborations, tools, innovations
 - (academic and commercial)

JISC

WILEY

Further Information and Opportunities to Engage

- PREPARDE site: <http://www2.le.ac.uk/projects/preparde>
- To date: Talks/Workshops/Town Halls at Goldschmidt, SpotOn London, CODATA, ACRE, AGU Fall Meeting, IDCC workshop Amsterdam, Workshops at British Library and Rutherford Appleton Laboratory, Talk/Splinter Meeting at EGU, slots at Research Data Alliance Plenary, Beyond the PDF2, The Now and Future of Data Publishing....
- JISC Mailing List: data-publication@jiscmail.ac.uk
- Research Data Alliance – Working Groups <http://rd-alliance.org/>
- World Data System – Membership <http://www.icsu-wds.org/>
- Need to continue the work, build the community and capabilities...