ESIF Funds for digitisation in Poland

Magdalena PIOTROWSKA
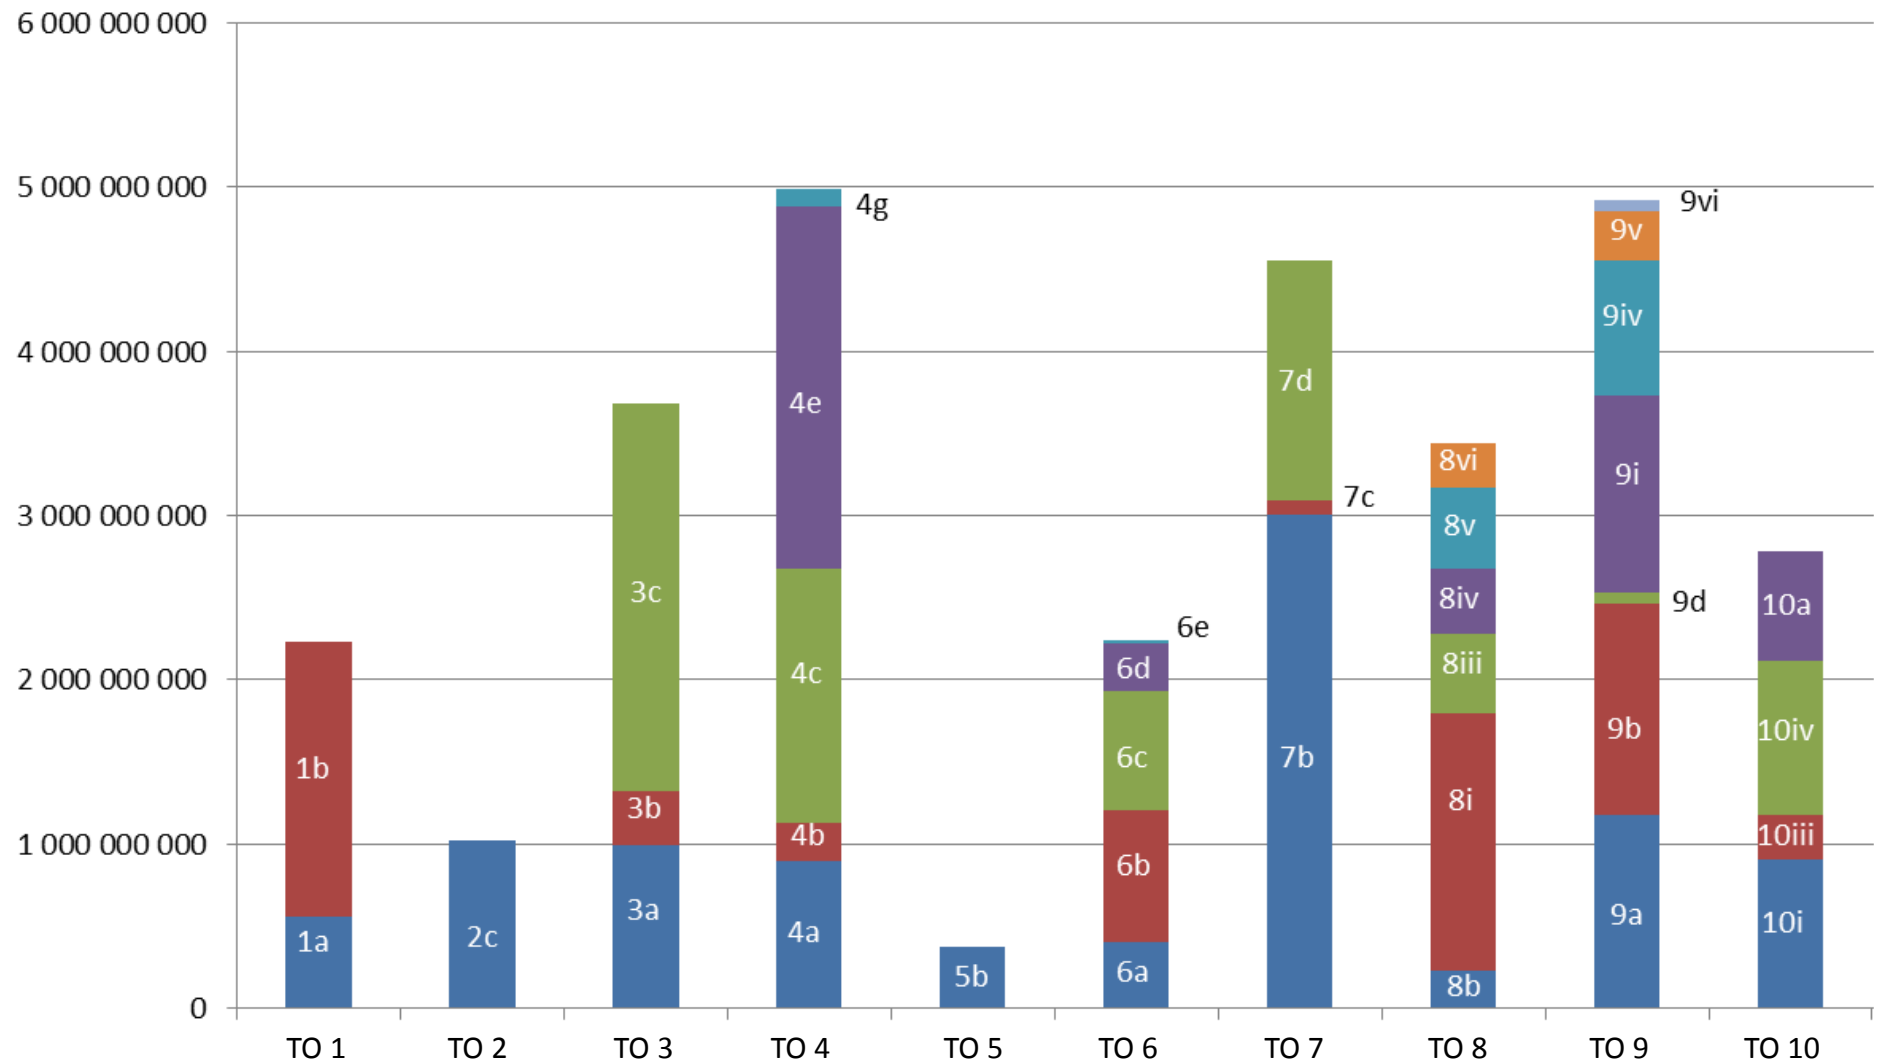

Department of Digital Development

Ministry of Economic Development

10 May 2017

Allocation per operational programme (EUR mln)

Programme	Allocation (EUR mln)
Inteligent Development	8 614
Infrastructure and Environment	27 414
Knowledge, Education, Development	4 689
Digital Poland	2 172
Technical Assistance	700
Eastern Poland	2 000
Regional Operational Programmes	31 277

Allocation per thematic objectives in ROPs

OPDP priority axes

Priority axis I
Broad access to high speed internet
EUR 1,02 bln

Priority axis II
E-administration and open government
EUR 949,6 mln

Priority axis III
Digital competences of the society
EUR 145 mln

The goals: it is planned that every Pole should have by the year 2023

access to the internet of capacity at least 30 MB/s

access to modern e-services and open public sector information at least basic digital skills

Digitalisation measure

data from administrative sources

cultural heritage resources

scientific resources

2.3
Digital availability and usefulness of public sector information projects
EUR 194,8 mln

The criteria

interoperability

user-centered design

complementarity

platforms

infrastructure

free access

5 star open data

positive opinion of the Committee of the Council of Ministers for the Digitization

Outcomes of implementation

Selected projects:

1 in the area of administrative resources
4 cultural heritage resources
5 scientific resources

EUR 194,8 mln allocation

Digital availability and usefulness of public sector information

29,2% EUR 56,8 mln allocation engaged

Projects – scientific and administrative resources

EpiBase – availability of the resources of national system of epidemiological and environmental surveillance over safety of people

Digital availability of Polish Academy of Sciences resources - Library in Kórnik

Multidisciplinary Open System of Knowledge Transfer – Knowledge Bridge

European technical heritage – dissemination of historical and modern publications in the scope of technical sciences in electronic form

An Active Information Platform e-scienceplus.pl

Who can apply – cultural resources?

national or cultural institutions supervised by the Ministry of Culture and National Heritage

state archives

nationwide radio and television broadcasters units of government administration and units subordinated or supervised by them libraries comprising National Library Resources partnerships of the aforementioned entities with entrepreneurs or non-governmental organizations

Projects – cultural resources

An Active Information Platform e-scienceplus.pl

Closer to culture. Digitisation of representative collections one of the oldest and biggest museums in Poland – the National Museum in Krakow for e-culture and e-education

Digitisation of Polish Film and Television School from Polish Television Archives

New quality of cultural resources availability at Warsaw University – creation of the digitisation of librarian and museum resources centre

Patrimonium – digitisation and availability of Polish national heritage from the resources of the National Library and Jagiellonian Library

The challenges we face

lack of interest in the field of administrative resources poor quality of applications purchase of infrastructure in projects opinion of the Committee of the Council of Ministers for the Digitization

Kronik@ the scope of the project infrastructure – building a common, integrated space that will ensure the long-term storage of digital objects portal - a platform that integrates all the existing portals/websites standard – a review of the existing standards and creation new ones equipment - creation of a mechanism for the re-use of digitisation equipment