

Communications Regulatory Authority of the Republic of Lithuania

The Republic of Lithuania fully supports all proposed elements for a roadmap listed in chapter 4 however at the same time has the opinion that any urgent actions to be taken and listed in chapter 5 should not be mandatory and should allow for some flexibility according to the situation in each of individual member states.