Do you think it would be useful to establish, at EU level, model rules for fast track proceedings for civil law cases concerning infringements of IPRs?	YES
Please explain, specifying in particular what types of infringements of IPRs could be covered, and what kind of measures should be granted, in the course of such fast track proceedings:	Covered should be, in my opinion, the usage of IPR from third-parties in the media. Should a third-party use any IPR of any kind without compensating the artist for the proper amount of using it, then there should be quick measures to assure the artist gets compensated fairly.
Do you think it would be useful to establish, at EU level, specific (in addition to Regulation (EC) No 861/2007 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 11 July 2007 establishing a European small claims procedure) model rules for small claims proceedings for civil law cases concerning infringements of IPRs?	YES
Please explain, specifying in particular what types of infringements of IPRs could be covered by such small claims proceedings:	Same answer as in question 69. + Some artist like me might have to live of small amounts of money coming from different places. If all these places fail to compensate me I would have no income at all. Small claims proceedings are necessary in this case because i would be at a loss if I were to pursue every case on my own.
