

PIERRE BOLLON

Pierre Bollon is the chief executive of Association Française de la Gestion financière (AFG), the French investment funds and asset managers trade association. AFG members manage more than 2500 Billions euros on behalf of institutional and retail investors, both through mandates and through investment (mutual) funds, including regulated hedge, real estate and private equity funds, making the French asset management industry one of the world leaders. Five French asset management groups belong to the world's top 25.

Pierre is a member of the board of the European Funds and Asset Managers Association (EFAMA). In its management committee, He is in charge of the "Management Company" theme area. He is a member of Support Office of International Investment Funds Association (IIFA), a member of the Board of the European Federation for Retirement Provision (EFRP) and is secretary general of the European Savings Institute (OEE). He was a member of the Board of governors and treasurer of the International Corporate Governance Network (ICGN) and is now member of its nominating committee. He is vice chairman of the French Study Center for Corporate Social Responsibility (ORSE).

Before joining AFG in September 1997, Pierre worked as a civil servant (in the Prime Minister's office and then in the Treasury) (1984-89) then as adviser to the chairman and director of economic and financial affairs of the French Federation of Insurance Companies (FFSA) (1990-1997).

Pierre graduated from the Ecole Nationale d'Administration (ENA) and the Ecole des Hautes Etudes Commerciales (HEC), the French leading business school. He has a masters degree in law (Panthéon-Sorbonne) and graduated from the Centre des Hautes Etudes d'Assurances (CHEA) and the Paris Institute of Political studies. He also graduated from the International management programme (HEC, Stern Business School - New-York University and Esade - Barcelona).