

Pierre Delsaux was born in Belgium in 1957. After studying Law at the University of Liège, he obtained his Master of Law at the Northwestern University (USA) in 1983. He was Legal Secretary at the Court of Justice from 1984 to 1987. His career within the Commission has included working in the Directorate General Competition (1991-1994) and the Directorate General Internal Market . He is currently Director of Free movement of capital, Company Law and Corporate Governance. He was also Secretary of the Lamfalussy Group.