Protection of personal data

When you register, your personal data will be collected and further processed in accordance with Regulation (EC) 45/2001, of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 December 2000 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data by the Community institutions and bodies and on the free movement of such data. By sending a registration, you will be considered as having given your consent to the processing of this data in the context of this conference.

The purpose of the processing operation is limited to the handling needed to ensure the applicant's participation at the conference and the drafting of a participants list which may be distributed at the conference or used for announcing possible follow-up events.

In case you want to verify what part of your personal data has been stored and/or have it modified or deleted, please write an e-mail message to the functional mailbox address markt-iprenforcement@ec.europa.eu. Your personal data will be kept as long as necessary for follow-up actions to the conference, but in any case not longer than 18 months after the date of the conference.

Special attention is drawn to the consequences of a request for deletion as this will mean that your name will be deleted from our mailing and contact lists.

In case you have questions concerning your rights in relation to the information processed in the context of this conference, you can contact the IPR enforcement unit of the Internal Market and Services Directorate General of the European Commission, operating under the responsibility of the Controller Mr. Alvydas Stancikas, Head of Unit MARKT/D3, using the following e-mail address: markt-iprenforcement@ec.europa.eu.

Complaints can be addressed to the European Data Protection Supervisor.
