

Catherine Perepelytsya has managed the Maritime Heritage Trail, an interreg IIIA project promoting Maritime Heritage and Tourism in the coastal regions of Kent, Sussex and Nord Pas de Calais between 2005 and 2007.

This successful initiative brought close to a million euros ERDF funding to raise awareness and preserve the unique Maritime Heritage in these neighbour regions.

Catherine Perepelytsya has previously coordinated an interreg IIIA Arts Movement Project enabling young people from Medway (UK) and art students from Valenciennes (France) to work on cross border artistic projects. She has completed a Degree and Masters degree in Sociology of Culture and postgraduate diploma in Cultural development at the University of Rouen (France).
