

FINALISTS FOR EUROPEAN PRIZE FOR INNOVATION IN PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

"Education" category

Country	Administration	Project	Contact
DE	Landkreis Offenbach	FAMILIENWERKSTADT	Ms Kordula Egenolf k.egenolf@kreis-offenbach.de + 49-6074-8180-3400
Initiator of the project FAMILIENwerkSTADT is the Integration Office of the Kreis Offenbach, a local administration in Germany. The project supports childcare facilities in their conceptual and structural development into family centers and fosters empowerment and participation for socially disadvantaged families with and without a migration background in their community. The prize money shall be used for the project coordinators at the childcare facilities, for training and project development.
DE	Landesamt für Geoinformation und Landentwicklung Baden- Württemberg	INSPIREdata Bodensee	poststelle@lgl.bwl.de + 49 711 95980 308
The Surveying Authorities of the four neighbouring countries of Lake Constance have developed a prototype transformation of spatial data with their INSPIRE initiative. It's planned to extend the transformation processes to other data models and to other subject areas (e.g. 3D) of the INSPIRE. The integration of the transformed data in a cross-border Lake Constance app is intended as well. The realisation will be done by research and project contracts together with partners from science and industry.
ES	Fundacion Agencia Regional de Gestion de Energia de Murcia	SOLAR RACE	José Pablo Delgado-Marín jpablo.delgado@argem.es +34 968223831
SOLAR RACE is an efficiency and endurance competition for vehicles powered by alternative energy sources organized by the Agencies for Development and Regional Energy of the Region of Murcia, Spain. The objective is to cover the distance using the least amount of energy. Vehicles must be designed and built by groups of students from educational centres, mainly High Schools and Universities. The prize would be invested in an EU Prix 2013 edition, on two pillars: science awareness among young people and contribution to the resource efficiency objective.

HR	Hrvatska akademska i istraživačka mreža - CARNet	EQEdu	Aleksandra Mudrinic Ribic Aleksandra.Mudrinic@CARNet.hr +38 5911450207
----	--	-------	---

Through the initiative EQEdu, Croatian Academic and Research Network - CARNet is connecting 26 Primary schools in rural, remote and isolated parts of Croatian mainland and islands and creating a network of innovative schools equipped with latest video-conference equipment, ICT and namely state-of-the-art educational methods. This way those pupils will have an equal education by attending technology-enhanced to meet the needs of education in the 21st century. The prize money would allow to involve new schools into the project and spread the network of schools

PT	Câmara Municipal de Santarém	Public buildings strategy	Maria João Cardoso mjcardoso@cm-santarem.pt + 35 1916899153
----	------------------------------	---------------------------	---

The Santarém Municipality, Portugal, has launched the initiative Public Strategy on sustainable construction for future buildings. The policy links companies, universities, research institutes, industry professionals and consumers fostering new ideas on sustainable growth and construction. The prize money will be invested in an Environmental and Sustainability Education modular Center and in the development of a dynamic Handbook for Sustainable Construction Options with successful cases.

SK	Centrum vedecko-technických informácií SR	ANTIPLAG	Julius Kravjar julius.kravjar@cvtisr.sk + 421-269253206
----	---	----------	---

The Slovak national initiative ANTIPLAG aggregates theses and dissertations from all Slovak higher education institutions in the Central Repository and checks their originality. Such a nationwide system is new in Europe. The prize would be used together with other funds for an upgrade to detect translational plagiarism, to expand the comparative corpus with significant e-resources, to share the experience with the Member States and to disseminate information about plagiarism, copyright, IPR and academic ethics.

FINALISTS FOR EUROPEAN PRIZE FOR INNOVATION IN PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

"Citizens" category

Country	Administration	Project	Contact
ES	Ayuntamiento de Avilés	CONTRASTA	Jorge Juan Manrique jmanrique@ayto-aviles.es + 34-637-780436
Aviles City Council (North of Spain, 83.000 inhabitants) is being a pioneer in developing a strategic program that turns public procurement into an active policy of employment. In its contracts, Aviles requires the engagement of bidders on different social aspects. The prize would be used to incorporate environmental criteria in public contracts; develop an innovative electronic public procurement; engage the companies with Social Responsibility and divulgate the CONTRASTA initiative to other Organizations.
FI	Helsingin Kaupunki	Helsinki Region Infoshare (HRI)	Ville Meloni Ville.meloni@forumvirium.fi + 35 8400260000
The cities of the Helsinki Metropolitan Area have been pioneers of open data in public administration in Finland through the Helsinki Region Infoshare (HRI) service. Recently City of Helsinki opened access to decision making information by opening an interface its electronic case management system. This gives a great opportunity to activate citizens to be more involved in public decision-making. The prize would enhance making this data more interoperable and creating innovative services for the benefit of citizens.
FR	Conseil Général du Haut-Rhin	ORIENTATION	Carole Mochel-Wirth mochel@cg68.fr + 33 389306303
The Conseil Général du Haut-Rhin, French local authority in charge of social action, developed the innovative IT tool ORIENTATION to improve the care and service system for dependent elderly. This secured information exchange system allows social and medical professionals providing quick and appropriate answers to citizen's demands. The prize would allow developing new functions, a citizen web portal for online requests, a statistic observatory and a training module to ease expansion of the tool.
SL	Ministrstvo za pravosodje in javno upravo	AdminConsultWiki	Polona Kovač polona.kovac@fu.uni-lj.si + 386 41 787 335

The Slovenian Ministry of Public Administration and the Faculty of Administration of the University of Ljubljana designed an innovative portal 'Administrative Consultation Wiki'(ACW), resulting in 2 mio hits in 2010-2012. ACW helps citizens, NGOs and authorities in administrative procedures to resolve their legal dilemmas through Web 2.0 approach. The prize would enable supporting citizens in more complex life events, networking focus groups, advising across border in English and developing further IT interactivity.

SE	Stockholms läns landsting	My Healthcare Flows	Nina Lundberg nina.lundberg@sll.se + 46 707375119
----	---------------------------	---------------------	---

'My Healthcare flows' is a national open source citizen service in Sweden that contains several products, e.g. medical record information, questionnaire-, search and upload services. Products are built on an Open platform using Open interfaces, in order to be easily shared with other stakeholders in Europe. The prize money would be spent on the development of an open source questionnaire APP for children having cystic fibrosis and a language module making the eHealth service accessible in different languages.

UK	London Borough of Islington	SHINE	Media Office media.team@islington.gov.uk +44 20 7527 2307
----	-----------------------------	-------	--

The London Borough of Islington's Seasonal Health & Affordable Warmth Team delivers the Seasonal Health Interventions Network (SHINE). SHINE provides an integrated and holistic package of interventions to reduce fuel poverty, excess winter deaths and hospital admissions and maintain independent living amongst older people. Our prize money would be spent on developing a peer to peer programme allowing residents to support each other in financial management and maintaining a warm, dry home.

FINALISTS FOR EUROPEAN PRIZE FOR INNOVATION IN PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION
"Firms" category

Country	Administration	Project	Contact
AT	Bundesministerium für Finanzen	Business Service Portal (Unternehmensserviceportal www.usp.gv.at)	post.ii-11@bmf.gv.at + 43 151433502305
The Austrian national initiative the Business Service Portal (BSP) is the electronic gateway for businesses to public administration in one in a web-based platform. This key measure of the initiative “Reducing Administrative Burden for Businesses” is run by the Ministry of Finance and the Federal Chancellery in close co-operation with all relevant ministries and stakeholders. The money will be used to gather suggestions for improvement by running a competition among students with business background.
ES	Ministerio de Hacienda y Administraciones Publica	Aporta	Garcia Emilio emilio.garcia@seap.minhap.es + 34 91 273 29 36
Aporta is the flagship initiative of the Spanish Government for promoting the Re-Use of Public Sector Information and fostering the opendata culture among the Public Administration and the Society to promote the development of innovative solutions to the grand societal challenges. In combination with the resources of the project, the prize would be spent in actions oriented to make easier for companies the reuse of public sector information. One example is the creation of a federation of opendata portals around datos.gob.es, connecting the national portal with regional and local portals.
ES	Instituto de Turismo de la Región de Murcia	HERMES	Hidalgo Belén Ferrer belen.hidalgo@carm.es +34 968 357717
The HERMES platform has been developed by the Tourism Institute of the Public Administration of Región de Murcia. The Hermes tools have been made available free of charge to regional SMEs, multiplying the number of touroperators to collaborate with and so allowing them to gain visibility, exponential growth of number of clients and important management savings. The prize would be used to integrate new touroperators and sales channels, supply accessibility tools to users, and communication.
FI	Tampereen Kaupunki	PlatformedInnovation	Jukka Matikainen

			jukka.matikainen@hermia.fi +358 40 533 6379
Platformed Innovation is a common effort of stakeholders involved in the development of New Factory innovation platform in Tampere Region: City of Tampere, Hermia Ltd., regional development agencies, universities and companies. Prize money will be used to create an EU-based global movement engaged with platform based innovation. An innovation bootcamp and a collaborative writing project with the aim of creating a handbook for platform thinking will be launched and executed.
NL	Gemeenschappelijke Regeling Samenwerkingsverband Noord-Nederland	123subsidie.nl	Henk Emmens Emmens@snn.eu + 31 6 22337590
SNN is a governmental alliance of the three northern provinces of the Netherlands and the managing authority for the administration of subsidies. With the website www.123subsidie.nl SME's get enabled to search for financing of their projects. The free of charge website contains information on provincial, federal and European funding possibilities. With the prize money further development of the website in co-creation with stakeholder should be financed to give a complete overview of funds also beyond those for SME's.
PT	Agencia Para a Modernizacao Administrativa IP	Zero Licensing initiative (ZL)	comunicao@ama.pt + 351 217231200
The Agency for Public Services Reform in Portugal is implementing the Zero Licensing (ZL) initiative. The ZL responds to the Services Directive, simplifying and dematerializing procedures regarding the exercise of commercial activities in a Point of Single Contact (PSC) and also, eliminates unnecessary licenses or replacing them by a simple communication in the PSC. In case of winning, the prize money will be used to expand the initiative to other sectors of the economy, such as exports, tourism and agriculture.			