Justice Programme – Eligible Countries

The Member States (MS) of the European Union (EU), including their Overseas Countries and Territories, without UK and Denmark, including Albania*

NOTE:

If, before the deadline for submission of proposals, other countries (EEA countries, candidate countries) join the programme, a notification will be placed on the topic page informing applicants that organisations from such countries can participate as applicants or partners.

The United Kingdom chose not to participate in the Justice Programme and therefore organisations established in the UK cannot submit an application nor be partners in this call for proposals under the Justice Programme.

Denmark does not participate in the Justice Programme. Therefore organisations established in Denmark cannot submit an application nor be partners in this call for proposals under the Justice Programme.

*As of 07/03/2017 Albania became one of the eligible countries within the Justice programme.
