

Prof. Dr. Thomas C. Mettenleiter

Year of birth: 1957

1977-1982 Tübingen University, Diploma

1982-1985 Federal Research Centre for Virus Diseases of Animals,
Tuebingen, Germany, Ph.D. (Genetics)

06/1986-12/1987 Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tennessee, Postdoctoral Fellow

Since 1988 Federal Research Centre for Virus Diseases of Animals,
Tuebingen, Germany

1990: Federal Research Centre for Virus Diseases of Animals,
Tuebingen, Germany

Habilitation (postdoctoral thesis)

09/1992-12/1992 USA

since 1994 Director of Institute of Molecular Biology at the Friedrich-Loeffler-Institut, Federal Research Institute for Animal Health, Greifswald – Insel Riems, Germany

since 1997 President of Friedrich-Loeffler-Institut, Federal Research Institute for Animal Health, Greifswald - Insel Riems, Germany

since 1997 Ernst-Moritz-Arndt-University Greifswald, Virology Professor

Elected member of the German Academy of Sciences - Leopoldina (Deutsche Akademie der Naturforscher – Leopoldina)

Member of

- the American Society for Microbiology
- the German Society of Virology (Deutsche Gesellschaft für Virologie)
- the American Society for Virology
- the European Society for Veterinary Virology
- the German Veterinarian Society (Deutsche Veterinärmedizinische Gesellschaft)