

LINEE Research Brief

Challenges of Multilingualism in Europe

Core Findings of the LINEE Network of Excellence

23 September 2010

Brussels, Building of the Swiss Mission, Place du Luxembourg 1

Programme

14.30	Introduction	Welcome by the Project Officer	Dr Andreas J. Obermaier European Commission
		LINEE – an introduction	Prof. Dr Iwar Werlen University of Bern
14.40	Presentation of research results	Une ressource sous-exploitée : le multilinguisme à l'école	Prof. Dr Rita Franceschini Free University of Bozen-Bolzano
15.00		National languages: barriers for multilingualism?	Dr Anna Fenyvesi, Assoc. Prof. University of Szeged
15.20		English: threatening multilingualism or saving it?	Dr Alessia Cogo University of Southampton
15.40		Multilingualism: an asset but also a challenge	Prof. Dr Iwar Werlen University of Bern
16.00	Discussion	Open discussion and individual questions

Coffee and tea

Registration required: www.linee.info/research-brief.htm

LINEE is a Network of Excellence of 9 Universities co-funded by the European Commission's 6th Framework Programme (contract 28388). The activities of the Network are its own responsibility; the European Commission cannot be held responsible for them.

Jesper Ronn-Jensen

Site Plan: LINEE Research Brief, Place du Luxembourg 1

Train station
Bruxelles-Luxembourg
Bus 12/21
to and from Brussels Airport

Swiss Mission to the EU
Place du Luxembourg 1, Brussels
Bus stops 12/21/22/27/34/38/64/80/95
Next Métro Station: Trône/Troon