

Your views on the organisation of the further work of the High Level Group – results of the questionnaire

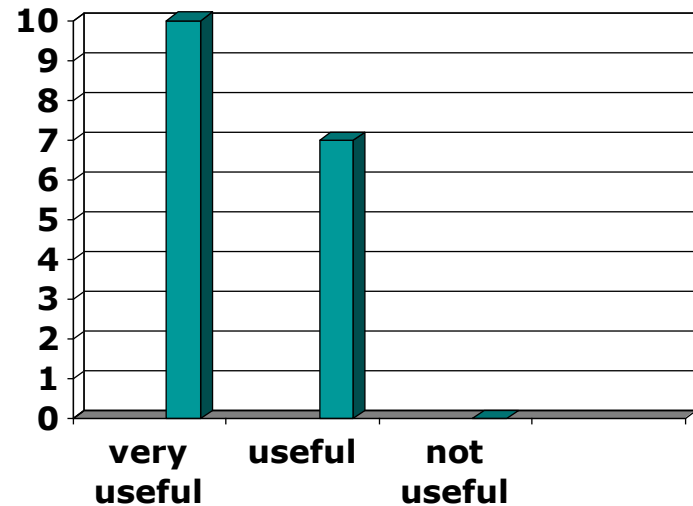

Marianne Klingbeil
Deputy Secretary General, European Commission
Meeting of HLG, 23 October 2012

Evaluation of working with subgroups

All participants find the method of preparing the themes in subgroups is very useful or useful

Suggestions:

- more experts per country to participate in each subgroup
- Member States should invest more in HLG participation

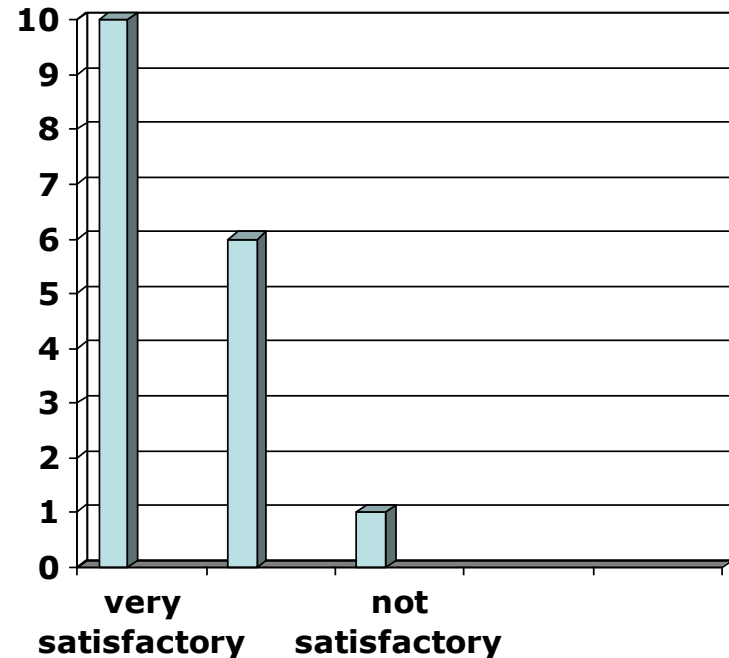

Functioning of the subgroups

Almost all participants found the functioning of the subgroups satisfactory

Concerns:

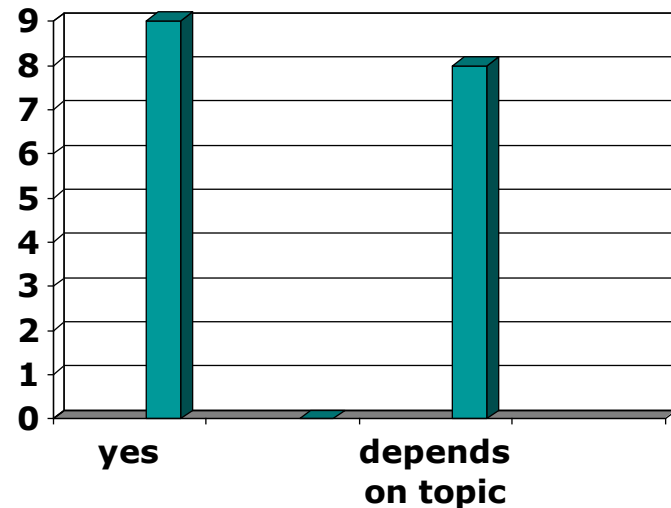

- Not always very well structured
- Results depend on activity of chair and committed members

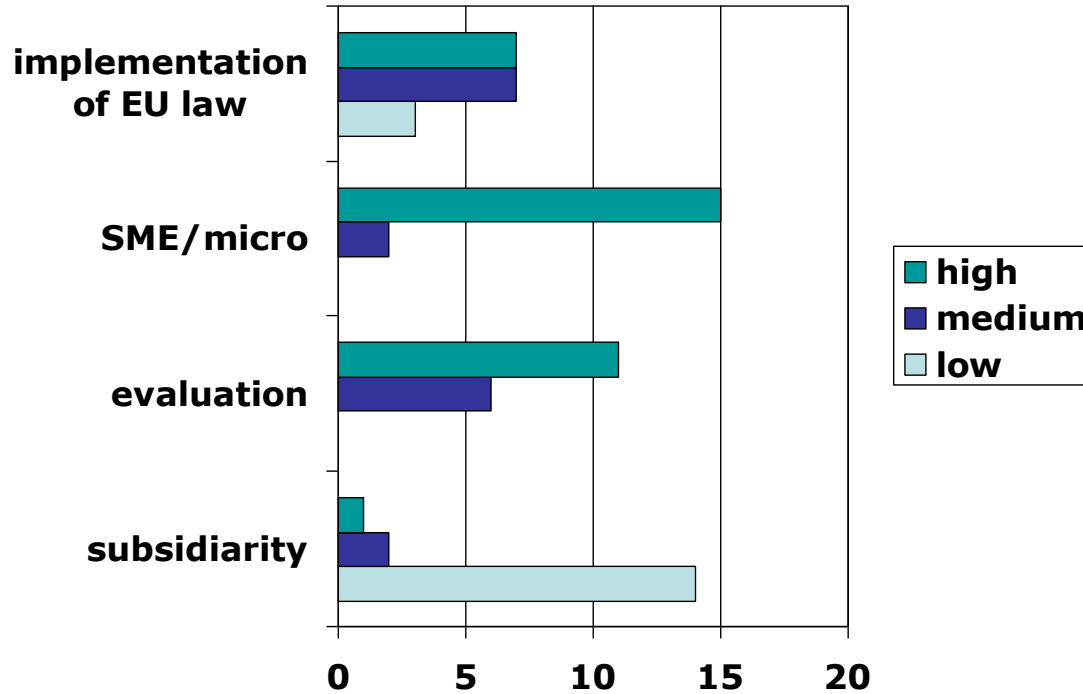

Should we go on with subgroups?

Participants wish to go on with this method but only for suitable topics

Members should be more involved in setting of agenda

Priorities for future work (1)

Priorities for future work (2)

Most interest in three topics:

- Improving regulatory framework for SMEs/Micro-Enterprises
- Further work on evaluation of legislation
- Implementation of EU law

Many participants want more exchange of best practices, experiences and training in IA
