QUESTION

We were unable to attend the information meeting held on the 29th of July 2009; can we have a summary of that meeting?

ANSWER

The information meeting was organised on July the 29th, 2009 at 2.30 p.m. in DG EAC's meeting room MADO 16/029, Madou Building, 2 Place Madou/Madouplein, 1210 Brussels. No potential bidder attended the meeting.

QUESTION

- 1) What is the objective of the meetings included in the timetable presented at point 4.3 of the Terms of Reference?
- 2) Should representatives of all the 27 EU member states participate in those meetings?

ANSWER

- 1) The objective of the meetings included in the timetable presented at point 4.3 of the Terms of Reference is to allow the selected contractor to have regular meetings with the Commission in order to present an update of the study following completion of the different phases of the project (notably the submission of the interim and final reports);
- 2) The size and nature of the delegation participating in these meetings on behalf of the selected contractor will be discussed on an ad hoc basis with the European Commission, taking into account the subject matter that will be dealt with at each meeting.
