Implementing the Community Lisbon programme

Proposal for a

REGULATION OF THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND OF THE COUNCIL
laying down the Community Customs Code
(Modernized Customs Code)

THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN UNION,
Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Community, and in particular Articles 26,
95, 133 and 135 thereof,

Having regard to the proposal from the Commission¹,

Having regard to the opinion of the European Economic and Social Committee²,

Acting in accordance with the procedure laid down in Article 251 of the Treaty³,

Whereas:

- (1) The Community is based upon a customs union. It is advisable, in the interests both of economic operators and the customs authorities in the Community, to assemble current customs legislation in a Community Customs Code (hereinafter called 'the Code').

³ [Opinion of the European Parliament of [...], Council Common Position of [...]] and Position of the European Parliament of [...]].

Based on the concept of an internal market, the Code should contain the general rules and procedures which ensure the implementation of the tariff and other common policy measures introduced at Community level in connection with trade in goods between the Community and countries or territories outside the customs territory of the Community, taking into account the requirements of those common policies. Customs legislation should be better aligned on the provisions relating to the collection of import charges without change to the scope of the tax provisions in force.

- (2) In accordance with the Communication from the Commission concerning the protection of the Community's financial interests and the Action Plan for 2004-2005⁴, it is appropriate to adapt the legal framework for the protection of the financial interests of the Community.
- (3) Council Regulation (EEC) No 2913/92 of 12 October 1992, establishing the Community Customs Code⁵, was based upon integration of the customs procedures applied separately in the Member States during the 1980s. That Regulation has been repeatedly and substantially amended since its introduction, in order to address specific problems such as the protection of good faith or the taking into account of security requirements. Further amendments to the Code are necessary as a consequence of the important legal changes which have occurred in recent years, both at Community and international level, such as the expiry of the Treaty establishing the European Coal and Steel Community and the entry into force of the Act of Accession on 1 May 2004, as well as the Amendment to the International Convention on the simplification and harmonization of customs procedures (hereinafter referred to as the 'Kyoto Convention'), the Accession of the Community to which was approved by Council Decision 2003/231/EC⁶. The time has now come to streamline customs procedures and to take into account the fact that electronic declarations and processing are the rule and paper-based declarations and processing the exception. For all of these reasons, further amendment of the present Code is not sufficient; a complete overhaul is necessary.

⁶ OJ L 86, 3.4.2003, p. 21.

- (3a) It is appropriate to introduce in the code a legal framework for the application of certain provisions of the customs legislation to trade in goods between parts of the customs territory to which the provisions of Council Directive 2006/112/EC on the common system of value added tax apply and parts of that territory where those provisions do not apply, or in trade between parts where those provisions do not apply. Considering the fact that the goods concerned are Community goods and the fiscal nature of the measures at stake in this intra-Community trade, it is justified to introduce through implementing measures, appropriate simplifications to the customs formalities to be applied to these goods.
- (4) The facilitation of legitimate trade and the fight against fraud require simple, rapid and standard customs procedures and processes. It is therefore appropriate, in line with the Communication from the Commission on a simple and paperless environment for customs and trade⁷, to simplify customs legislation, so as to allow the use of modern tools and technology and to promote further the uniform application of customs legislation and modernised approaches to customs control, thus contributing to ensuring the basis for efficient and simple clearance procedures. Customs procedures should be merged or aligned and the number of procedures reduced to those that are economically justified, with a view to increasing the competitiveness of business.
- (5) The completion of the internal market, the reduction of barriers to international trade and investment and the reinforced need to ensure security and safety at the external borders of the Community have transformed the role of customs giving them a leading role within the supply chain and, in their monitoring and management of international trade, making them a catalyst to the competitiveness of countries and companies. Customs legislation should therefore reflect the new economic reality and the new role and mission of customs.

⁷ COM(2003) 452 final, 24.7.2003; Council Resolution of 5 December 2003 on creating a simple and paperless environment for customs and trade Decision, OJ C 305, 16.12.2003, p. 1

- (6) The use of Information and Communication Technology (hereinafter referred to as 'IT'), as laid down in the Decision of the European Parliament and of the Council on a paperless environment for customs and trade, is a key element in ensuring trade facilitation and, at the same time, the effectiveness of customs controls, thus reducing costs for business and risk for society. It is therefore necessary to establish in the Code the legal framework within which that Decision can be implemented, in particular the legal principle that all customs and trade transactions are to be handled electronically and that IT systems for customs operations offer, in each Member State, the same facilities to economic operators.
- (6a) Such use of information and communication technology should be accompanied by harmonised and standardised application of customs controls by the Member States, to ensure an equivalent level of customs control throughout the Community so as not to give rise to anti-competitive behaviour at the various Community entry and exit points.
- (7) In the interests of facilitating business, while at the same time providing for the proper levels of control of goods brought into or out of the customs territory of the Community, it is desirable that the information provided by economic operators should be shared, taking account of the relevant data protection provisions, between customs authorities and with other agencies involved in that control, such as police, border guards, veterinary and environmental authorities, and controls by the various authorities harmonised, so that the economic operator need give the information only once and that goods are controlled by those authorities at the same time and at the same place.

- (8) In the interests of facilitating certain types of business, any person should continue to have the right to appoint a representative in their dealings with the customs authorities. However, it should no longer be possible for this right of representation to be reserved under a law laid down by one of the Member States. Furthermore, a customs representative who complies with the criteria laid down in Article 15 for the granting of the status of authorized economic operator, shall be entitled to provide such services in another Member State than the one where he is established.
- (9) Compliant and trustworthy economic operators should, as 'Authorized Economic Operators', be able to take maximum advantage of widespread use of simplification and, taking account of security and safety aspects, benefit from reduced levels of customs control. They may thus enjoy the status of 'customs simplification' authorised economic operator or the status of 'security and safety' authorised economic operator. They may be granted one or other status, or both together.
- (10) All decisions, that is official acts by the customs authorities pertaining to customs legislation and having legal effect on one or more persons, including binding information issued by those authorities, should be covered by the same rules. Any such decisions should be valid throughout the Community and be able to be annulled, amended except where stipulated, or revoked where they do not conform to the customs legislation or its interpretation.
- (11) In accordance with the Charter of Fundamental Rights, it is necessary, in addition to the right of appeal against any decision taken by the customs authorities, to provide for the right of every person to be heard before any decision is taken which would adversely affect him.

- (12) The streamlining of customs procedures within an electronic environment requires the sharing of responsibilities between the customs authorities of different Member States. It is necessary to ensure an appropriate level of effective, dissuasive and proportionate sanctions throughout the Internal Market.
- (13) In order to secure a balance between, on the one hand, the need for customs authorities to ensure the correct application of customs legislation and, on the other, the right of economic operators to be treated fairly, the customs authorities should be granted extensive powers of control and economic operators a right of appeal.
- (14) In order to minimize the occurrence of risk to the Community, its citizens and its trading partners, the harmonized application of customs controls by the Member States should be based upon a common risk management framework and an electronic system for its implementation. The establishment of a risk management framework common to all Member States should not prevent them from controlling goods by random checks.
- (15) It is necessary to establish the factors on the basis of which import or export duties and other measures in respect of trade in goods are applied. It is also appropriate to lay down clear provisions for issuing proofs of origin in the Community, where the exigencies of trade so require.
- (16) [...]
- (17) It is desirable to group together all cases of incurrence of a customs debt on importation, other than following the submission of a customs declaration for release for free circulation or temporary admission with partial relief, in order to avoid difficulties in determining the legal basis on which the customs debt was incurred. The same should apply in case of incurrence of a customs debt on exportation.

- (18) Since the new role of customs authorities implies the sharing of responsibilities and co-operation between inland and border customs offices, the customs debt should, in most cases, be incurred at the place where the debtor is established, as the customs office competent for this place can best supervise the activities of the person concerned.
- (19) Furthermore, in line with the Kyoto Convention, it is appropriate to provide for a reduced number of cases where administrative co-operation between Member States is required in order to establish the place where the customs debt was incurred and to recover the duties.
- (20) The rules for special procedures should allow for the use of a single guarantee for all categories of special procedures and for that guarantee to be comprehensive, covering a number of transactions.
- (21) In order to ensure better protection of the financial interests of the Community and of the Member States, a guarantee should cover non-declared or incorrectly declared goods included in a consignment or a declaration for which it is provided. For the same reason, the undertaking of the guarantor should also cover amounts of import or export duty which fall to be paid following post-release controls.
- (22) In order to safeguard the financial interests of the Community and of the Member States and to curb fraudulent practices, arrangements involving graduated measures for the application of a comprehensive guarantee are advisable. Where there is an increased risk of fraud it should be possible to prohibit temporarily the application of the comprehensive guarantee, taking account of the particular situation of the economic operators.

- (23) It is appropriate to take account of the good faith of the person concerned in cases where a customs debt is incurred through non-compliance with customs legislation and to minimize the impact of negligence on the part of the debtor.
- (24) It is necessary to lay down the principle of how to determine the status of Community goods, the circumstances pertaining to the loss of such status, and to provide a basis for determining when this status remains unaltered in cases where goods temporarily leave the customs territory of the Community.
- (25) It is appropriate, where an economic operator has provided, in advance, the information necessary for risk-based controls on the admissibility of the goods, to ensure that quick release of goods is then the rule. Fiscal and trade policy controls should primarily be performed by the customs office responsible for the premises of the economic operator.
- (26) The rules for customs declarations and for the placing of goods under a customs procedure should be modernized and streamlined, in particular requiring that customs declarations are, as a rule, made electronically and providing for only one type of simplified declaration.
- (27) Since the Kyoto Convention favours the lodging, registering and checking of the customs declaration prior to the arrival of the goods and, furthermore, the dissociation of the place where the declaration is lodged from the place where the goods are physically located, it is appropriate to provide for centralized clearance at the place where the economic operator is established. Centralized clearance should include the facility for the use of simplified declarations, deferment of the date of the submission of a complete declaration and required documents, periodic declaration and deferred payment.

- (28) In order to contribute to ensuring neutral conditions for competition throughout the Community it is appropriate to lay down at Community level the rules governing the destruction or disposal otherwise of goods by the customs authorities, which have previously required national legislation.
- (29) It is appropriate to provide common and simple rules for the special procedures (transit, storage, specific use and processing), supplemented by a small set of rules for each category of special procedure, in order to make the choice for the operator of the right procedure simple, to avoid errors and to reduce the number of post-release recoveries and repayments.
- (30) The granting of authorizations for several special procedures with a single guarantee and a single supervising customs office should be facilitated and there should be simple rules on the incurrance of a customs debt in these cases. The basic principle should be that goods placed under a special procedure, or the products made from them, are assessed at the time the customs debt is incurred. However, it should also be possible, where economically justified, to assess the goods at the time they were placed under a special procedure. The same principles should apply to usual forms of handling.
- (31) In view of the increased security-related measures introduced into the Code under Regulation (EC) No 648/2005, the placing of goods into free zones should become a customs procedure and the goods should be subject to customs controls at entry and with regard to records.
- (32) [deleted]
- (33) Given that the intention of re-exportation is no longer necessary, the inward processing suspension procedure should be merged with processing under customs control and the inward processing drawback procedure abandoned. This one inward processing procedure should also cover destruction, except where destruction is carried out by, or under the supervision of, customs.

- (34) Security-related measures relating to Community goods brought out of the customs territory of the Community should apply equally to the re-export of non-Community goods. The same basic rules should apply to all types of goods, with the possibility of exceptions where necessary, such as for goods only transiting through the customs territory of the Community.
- (35) The measures necessary for the implementation of this Regulation should be adopted in accordance with Council Decision 1999/468/EC of 28 June 1999 laying down the procedure for the exercise of implementing powers conferred on the Commission⁸.
- (36) It is appropriate to provide empowerment for the adoption of implementing provisions to this Code. These measures should be adopted in accordance with the management and regulatory procedures provided for in Article 4 and 5 of Decision 1999/468/EC.
- (37) In particular, power should be conferred on the Commission to define the conditions and criteria necessary for the effective application of this Code. Where those measures are of general scope and designed to amend non-essential elements of this Regulation or to supplement this Regulation by the addition of new non-essential elements, they must be adopted in accordance with the regulatory procedure with scrutiny provided for in Article 5a of Decision 1999/468/EC.
- (37a) It is appropriate, in order to ensure an effective decision-making process, to examine questions relating to the preparation of a common position in committees, working groups and panels introduced by or under international agreements dealing with customs legislation.

⁸ OJ L 184, 17.7.1999, p. 23. Decision as last amended by Decision 2006/512/EC of 17 July 2006 (OJ L 200, 22.7.2006, p. 11).

- (38) In order to simplify and rationalize customs legislation, a number of provisions presently contained in autonomous Community acts have, for the sake of transparency been incorporated into the Code.

The following Regulations, together with Regulation (EEC) No 2913/92, should therefore be repealed:

Council Regulation (EEC) No 3925/91 of 19 December 1991 concerning the elimination of controls and formalities applicable to the cabin and hold baggage of persons taking an intra-Community flight and the baggage of persons making an intra-Community sea crossing⁹, [...] Council Regulation (EC) No 1207/2001 of 11 June 2001 on procedures to facilitate the issue of movement certificates EUR.1, the making-out of invoice declarations and forms EUR.2 and the issue of certain approved exporter authorizations under the provisions governing preferential trade between the European Community and certain countries¹⁰.

- (39) In accordance with the principle of proportionality, it is necessary, and appropriate for the effective functioning of the Customs Union as a central pillar of the internal market, to lay down rules and procedures applicable to goods brought into or out of the customs territory of the Community. This Regulation does not go beyond what is necessary in order to achieve the objectives pursued, in accordance with the third paragraph of Article 5 of the Treaty,

HAVE ADOPTED THIS REGULATION:

⁹ OJ L 374, 31.12.1991, p. 4; Regulation as last amended by Regulation (EC) No 1882/2003 of the European Parliament and of the Council (OJ L 284, 31.10.2003, p. 1).

The measures designed to amend non-essential elements of this Regulation, by supplementing it, laying down exceptions to the first subparagraph of this paragraph shall be adopted in accordance with the regulatory procedure with scrutiny referred to in Article 196(4).

These measures shall define the cases in which and the conditions under which paper or other transactions may be used in place of electronic exchanges of data, taking the following, in particular, into account:

- (a) the possibility of temporary failure of the customs authorities' computerized systems;

3. In the cases referred to in paragraph 2, where the disputed decision has the effect of causing import duties or export duties to be payable, suspension of that decision shall be conditional upon the provision of a guarantee, unless it is established, on the basis of a documented assessment, that such a guarantee would be likely to cause the debtor serious economic or social difficulties.

Those controls, hereinafter 'customs controls', may in particular consist in examining goods, taking samples, verifying declaration data and the existence and authenticity of documents, examining the accounts of economic operators and other records, inspecting means of transport, inspecting luggage and other goods carried by or on persons and carrying out official enquiries and other similar acts.

1. Where, in respect of the same goods, controls other than customs controls are to be performed by competent authorities other than the customs authorities, customs authorities shall, in close co-operation with those other authorities, endeavour to have those controls performed, wherever possible, at the same time and place as customs controls (one-stop-shop), with customs authorities having the coordinating role in achieving this.

2. In the framework of the controls referred to in this Section, customs and other competent authorities may, where necessary for the purposes of minimising risk and combating fraud, exchange data received, in the context of the entry, exit, transit, transfer, storage and end-use of goods, including postal traffic, moved between the customs territory of the Community and other territories, and the presence and movement within the customs territory of non-Community and end-use goods, and the results of any control with each other and with the Commission. Customs authorities and the Commission may also exchange such data with each other for the purpose of ensuring a uniform application of Community customs legislation.

Article 29

Post-release control

The customs authorities may, after releasing the goods and in order to ascertain the accuracy of the particulars contained in the summary or customs declaration, inspect any documents and data relating to the operations in respect of the goods in question or to prior or subsequent commercial operations involving those goods. Those authorities may also examine such goods and/or take samples where it is still possible for them to do so.

Such inspections may be carried out at the premises of the holder of the goods or his representative, of any other person directly or indirectly involved in those operations in a business capacity or of any other person in possession of those documents and data for business purposes.

Article 30

In the case of goods released for free circulation in circumstances other than those referred to in the third subparagraph, or goods declared for export, that period shall run from the end of the year in which the customs declarations for release for free circulation or export are accepted.

In the case of goods released for free circulation duty-free or at a reduced rate of import duty on account of their end-use, that period shall run from the end of the year in which they cease to be subject to customs supervision.

In the case of goods placed under another customs procedure, that period shall run from the end of the year in which the customs procedure concerned has ended.

2. Without prejudice to Article 73(4), where a customs control in respect of a customs debt shows that the relevant entry in the accounts has to be corrected and the person concerned has been notified of this, the documents and information shall be kept for three years beyond the time limit provided for in paragraph 1 of this article.

 - (a) because factors used to determine the customs value of goods are expressed in a currency other than that of the Member State where the customs value is determined;
 - (b) because the value of the euro is required in national currencies for the purposes of determining the tariff classification of goods and the amount of import and export duty, including value thresholds in the Community Customs Tariff.
2. Where the conversion of currency is necessary for reasons other than those referred to in paragraph 1, the value of the euro in national currencies to be applied within the framework of the customs legislation shall be fixed at least once a year.

Preferential origin of goods

1. In order to benefit from the measures referred to in points (d) or (e) of Article 36(2) or from non-tariff preferential measures, goods shall comply with the rules on preferential origin referred to in paragraphs 2 to 5 of this article.

2. In the case of goods benefiting from preferential measures contained in agreements which the Community has concluded with certain countries or territories outside the customs territory of the Community or groups of such countries or territories, the rules on preferential origin shall be laid down in those agreements.
3. In the case of goods benefiting from preferential measures adopted unilaterally by the Community in respect of certain countries or territories outside the customs territory of the Community or groups of such countries or territories, other than those referred to in paragraph 5, the Commission shall, in accordance with the procedure referred to in Article 196(2), adopt measures laying down the rules on preferential origin.
4. CHAPTER 3

VALUE OF GOODS FOR CUSTOMS PURPOSES

Article 43

Scope

The customs value of goods, for the purposes of applying the Common Customs Tariff and non-tariff measures laid down by Community provisions governing specific fields relating to trade in goods, shall be determined in accordance with Articles 44 to 46.

Article 44

Method of customs valuation based on the transaction value

1. The primary basis for the customs value of goods shall be the transaction value, that is the price actually paid or payable for the goods when sold for export to the customs territory of the Community, adjusted, where necessary, in accordance with measures adopted pursuant to the first subparagraph of Article 46.
2. The price actually paid or payable is the total payment made or to be made by the buyer to the seller or by the buyer to a third party for the benefit of the seller for the imported goods and includes all payments made or to be made as a condition of sale of the imported goods.

3. The transaction value shall apply provided that the following conditions are satisfied:
- (a) there are no restrictions as to the disposal or use of the goods by the buyer, other than any of the following:
 - (i) restrictions imposed or required by a law or by the public authorities in the Community,
 - (ii) limitations of the geographical area in which the goods may be resold,
 - (iii) restrictions which do not substantially affect the customs value of the goods;
 - (b) the sale or price is not subject to some condition or consideration for which a value cannot be determined with respect to the goods being valued;
 - (c) no part of the proceeds of any subsequent resale, disposal or use of the goods by the buyer will accrue directly or indirectly to the seller, unless an appropriate adjustment can be made in accordance with measures adopted pursuant to the first subparagraph of Article 46;
 - (d) the buyer and seller are not related or the relationship did not influence the price.

Article 45

Secondary methods of customs valuation

1. Where the customs value of goods cannot be determined under Article 44, it shall be determined by proceeding sequentially from point (a) to point (d) of paragraph 2 of this article, until the first point under which the customs value of goods can be determined.

The order of application of points (c) and (d) shall be reversed if the declarant so requests.

2. The customs value, pursuant to paragraph 1, shall be:
 - (a) the transaction value of identical goods sold for export to the customs territory of the Community and exported at or about the same time as the goods being valued;
 - (b) the transaction value of similar goods sold for export to the customs territory of the Community and exported at or about the same time as the goods being valued;
 - (c) the value based on the unit price at which the imported goods, or identical or similar imported goods, are sold within the customs territory of the Community in the greatest aggregate quantity to persons not related to the sellers;
 - (d) the computed value.

3. Where the customs value cannot be determined under paragraph 1, it shall be determined, on the basis of data available in the customs territory on the Community, using reasonable means consistent with the principles and general provisions of the following:
 - (a) the agreement on implementation of Article VII of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade;
 - (b) Article VII of General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade;
 - (c) this chapter.

Article 46

Implementing measures

The Commission shall, in accordance with the procedure referred to in Article 196(2), adopt the measures laying down the following:

- the elements which, for the purposes of determining the customs value, must be added to the price actually paid or payable, or which may be excluded;
- elements which are to be used to determine the computed value;
- the method of determination of the customs value in specific cases, and with regard to goods for which a customs debt is incurred after the use of a special procedure;
- any necessary further conditions, provisions and rules for the application of Articles 44 and 45.

Section 2

Customs debt on importation

Article 49

Release for free circulation and temporary admission

1. A customs debt on importation shall be incurred through the placing of non-Community goods liable to import duties under either of the following customs procedures:
 - (a) release for free circulation, including under the end-use provisions;
 - (b) temporary admission with partial relief from import duties.
2. A customs debt shall be incurred at the time of acceptance of the customs declaration.
3. The declarant shall be the debtor. In the event of indirect representation, the person on whose behalf the customs declaration is made shall also be a debtor.

Where a customs declaration in respect of one of the procedures referred to in paragraph 1 is drawn up on the basis of information which leads to all or part of the import duties not being collected, the person who provided the information required to draw up the declaration and who knew, or who ought reasonably to have known, that such information was false shall also be a debtor.

Special provisions relating to non-originating goods

1. Where a prohibition of drawback of, or exemption from, import duties applies to non-originating goods used in the manufacture of products, for which a proof of origin is issued or made out in the framework of a preferential arrangement between the Community and certain countries or territories outside the customs territory of the Community or groups of such countries or territories, a customs debt on importation shall be incurred in respect of these non-originating goods, through the acceptance of the re-export notification relating to the products in question.
2. Where a customs debt is incurred pursuant to paragraph 1, the amount of import duty corresponding to this debt shall be determined under the same conditions as in the case of a customs debt resulting from the acceptance, on the same date, of the customs declaration for release for free circulation of the non-originating goods used in the manufacture of the products in question for the purpose of ending the inward processing procedure.
3. Article 49(2) and (3) shall apply mutatis mutandis. However, in the case of non-Community goods as referred to in Article 189, the person who lodges the re-export notification shall be the debtor. In the event of indirect representation, the person on whose behalf the notification is lodged shall also be a debtor.

Customs debt incurred through non-compliance

1. For goods liable to import duties, a customs debt on importation shall be incurred through non-compliance with either of the following:
 - (a) one of the obligations laid down in customs legislation concerning the introduction of non-Community goods into the customs territory of the Community, their removal from customs supervision or the movement, processing, storage, temporary admission or disposal of such goods within that territory;
 - (b) one of the obligations laid down in customs legislation concerning the end-use of goods within the customs territory of the Community;
 - (c) a condition governing the placing of non-Community goods under a customs procedure or the granting, by virtue of the end-use of the goods, of duty exemption or a reduced rate of import duty.

2. The time at which the customs debt is incurred shall be either of the following:
 - (a) the moment when the obligation the non-fulfilment of which gives rise to the customs debt is not met or ceases to be met;
 - (b) the moment when a customs declaration is accepted for the placing of goods under a customs procedure where it is established subsequently that a condition governing the placing of the goods under that procedure or the granting of a duty exemption or a reduced rate of import duty by virtue of the end-use of the goods was not in fact fulfilled.

3. In cases referred to under points (a) and (b) of paragraph 1, the debtor shall be any of the following:
- (a) any person who was required to fulfil the obligations concerned;
 - (b) any person who was aware or should reasonably have been aware that an obligation under the customs legislation was not fulfilled and who acted on behalf of the person who was obliged to fulfil the obligation, or who participated in the act which led to the non-fulfilment of the obligation;
 - (c) any person who acquired or held the goods in question and who was aware or should reasonably have been aware at the time of acquiring or receiving the goods that an obligation under the customs legislation was not fulfilled.
4. In cases referred to under point (c) of paragraph 1, the debtor shall be person who is required to comply with the conditions governing the placing of the goods under a customs procedure or declaring the goods concerned under that procedure or the granting of a duty exemption or reduced rate of import duty by virtue of the end-use of the goods.

Where a customs declaration in respect of one of the procedures referred to in paragraph 1 is drawn up, or any information required under the customs legislation relating to the conditions governing the placing of the goods under a customs procedure is given to the customs authorities, which leads to all or part of the import duties not being collected, the person who provided the information required to draw up the declaration and who knew, or who ought reasonably to have known, that such information was false shall also be a debtor.

Article 52

Deduction of an amount of import duty already paid

1. Where a customs debt is incurred, pursuant to Article 51(1), in respect of goods released for free circulation at a reduced rate of import duty on account of their end-use, the amount of import duty paid when the goods were released for free circulation shall be deducted from the amount of the import duty corresponding to the customs debt.

The first subparagraph shall apply mutatis mutandis where a customs debt is incurred in respect of scrap and waste resulting from the destruction of such goods.

2. Where a customs debt is incurred, pursuant to Article 51(1), in respect of goods placed under temporary admission with partial relief from import duties, the amount of import duty paid under partial relief shall be deducted from the amount of the import duty corresponding to the customs debt.

Section 3

Customs debt on exportation

Article 53

1. A customs debt on exportation shall be incurred through the placing of goods liable to export duties under the export procedure or the outward processing procedure.
2. The customs debt shall be incurred at the time of acceptance of the customs declaration.

3. The declarant shall be the debtor. In the event of indirect representation, the person on whose behalf the customs declaration is made shall also be a debtor.

Where a customs declaration is drawn up on the basis of information which leads to all or part of the export duties not being collected, the person who provided the information required for the declaration and who knew, or who should reasonably have known, that such information was false shall also be a debtor.

Article 54

Customs debt incurred through non-compliance

1. For goods liable to export duties, a customs debt on exportation shall be incurred through non-compliance with either of the following:
 - (a) one of the obligations laid down in customs legislation for the exit of the goods;
 - (b) the conditions under which the goods were allowed to leave the customs territory of the Community with total or partial relief from export duties.

2. The time at which the customs debt is incurred shall be one of the following:
 - (a) the moment at which the goods actually leave the customs territory of the Community without a customs declaration;
 - (b) the moment at which the goods reach a destination other than that for which they were allowed to leave the customs territory of the Community with total or partial relief from export duties;
 - (c) should the customs authorities be unable to determine the moment referred in point (b), the expiry of the time limit set for the production of evidence that the conditions entitling the goods to such relief have been fulfilled.

3. In cases referred to under point (a) of paragraph 1, the debtor shall be any of the following:
- (a) any person who was required to fulfil the obligation concerned;
 - (b) any person who was aware or should reasonably have been aware that the obligation concerned was not fulfilled and who acted on behalf of the person who was obliged to fulfil the obligation;
 - (c) any person who participated in the act which led to the non-fulfilment of the obligation and who was aware or should reasonably have been aware that a customs declaration had not been lodged but should have been.
4. In cases referred to under point (b) of paragraph 1, the debtor shall be any person who is required to comply with the conditions under which the goods were allowed to leave the customs territory of the Community with total or partial relief from export duties.

Section 4

Provisions common to customs debts incurred on importation and exportation

Article 55

Prohibitions and restrictions

The customs debt on importation or exportation shall be incurred even if it relates to goods which are subject to measures of prohibition or restriction on importation or exportation of any kind.

However, no customs debt shall be incurred on either of the following:

- (a) the unlawful introduction into the customs territory of the Community of counterfeit currency;
- (b) the introduction into the customs territory of the Community of narcotic drugs and psychotropic substances other than where strictly supervised by the competent authorities with a view to their use for medical and scientific purposes.

For the purposes of penalties as applicable to customs offences, the customs debt shall nevertheless be deemed to have been incurred where, under the law of a Member State, customs duties or the existence of a customs debt provide the basis for determining penalties.

Article 56

Several debtors

Where several persons are liable for payment of the amount of import or export duty corresponding to one customs debt, they shall be jointly and severally liable for the totality of the debt.

The Commission may, in accordance with the procedure referred to in Article 196(2), adopt measures laying down the cases and conditions under which this provision shall be implemented.

Article 57

General rules for calculation of the amount of import or export duty

1. The amount of the import or export duty shall be determined on the basis of those rules for calculation of duty which were applicable to the goods concerned at the time at which the customs debt in respect of them was incurred.
2. Where it is not possible to determine precisely the time at which the customs debt is incurred, that time shall be deemed to be the time at which the customs authorities conclude that the goods are in a situation in which a customs debt has been incurred.

However, where the information available to the customs authorities enables them to establish that the customs debt had been incurred prior to the time at which they reached that conclusion, the customs debt shall be deemed to have been incurred at the earliest time that such a situation can be established.

Article 58

Special rules for calculation of the amount of import duty

1. Where costs for storage or usual forms of handling have been incurred within the customs territory of the Community in respect of goods placed under a customs procedure, such costs or the increase in value shall not be taken into account for the calculation of the amount of import duty where satisfactory proof of these costs is provided by the declarant.

However, the customs value, quantity, nature and origin of non-Community goods used in the operations shall be taken into account for the calculation of the amount of import duty.

2. Where the tariff classification of goods placed under a customs procedure changes as a result of usual forms of handling within the customs territory of the Community, the original tariff classification for the goods placed under the procedure shall be applied at the request of the declarant.
3. Where a customs debt is incurred for processed products resulting from the inward processing procedure, the amount of import duty corresponding to such debt shall, at the request of the declarant, be determined on the basis of the tariff classification, customs value, quantity, nature and origin of the goods placed under the inward processing procedure at the time of acceptance of the customs declaration relating to these goods.

4. Where customs legislation provides for a favourable tariff treatment of goods, relief or total or partial exemption from import or export duties, pursuant to points (d) to (g) of Article 36(2), Articles 136 to 140, 181 to 184, or pursuant to Council Regulation (EEC) No 918/83, such favourable tariff treatment, relief or exemption shall also apply in cases where a customs debt is incurred pursuant to Articles 51 or 54, on condition that the failure which lead to the incurrence of a customs debt had no significant effect on the correct operation of the customs procedure concerned and did not constitute an attempt at deception.

Article 59

Implementing measures

The measures designed to amend non-essential elements of this Regulation, by supplementing it, laying down the following:

- (a) the rules for the calculation of the amount of import or export duty applicable to goods;
- (b) further special rules for specific procedures;
- (c) derogations from Articles 57 and 58, in particular to avoid the circumvention of the tariff measures referred to in Article 36(2)(h)

shall be adopted in accordance with the regulatory procedure with scrutiny referred to in Article 196(4).

Article 60

Place where the customs debt is incurred

1. A customs debt shall be incurred at the place where the customs declaration or the re-export notification referred to in Articles 49, 50 and 53 is lodged or where the supplementary declaration referred to in Article 128(3), shall be lodged.

In all other cases, the place where a customs debt is incurred shall be the place where the events from which it arises occur.

If it is not possible to determine that place, the customs debt shall be incurred at the place where the customs authorities conclude that the goods are in a situation in which a customs debt is incurred.

2. If the goods have been entered for a customs procedure which has not been discharged, and the place cannot be determined, pursuant to the second or third subparagraphs of paragraph 1, within a specified period of time, the customs debt shall be incurred at the place where the goods were either placed under the procedure concerned or were introduced into the customs territory of the Community under that procedure.

The measures designed to amend non-essential elements of this Regulation, by supplementing it, laying down the period of time referred to in the first subparagraph of this paragraph shall be adopted in accordance with the regulatory procedure with scrutiny referred to in Article 196(4).

3. Where the information available to the customs authorities enables them to establish that the customs debt may have been incurred in several places, the customs debt shall be deemed to have been incurred at the place where it was first incurred.
4. If a customs authority establishes that a customs debt has been incurred under Article 51 or Article 54 in another Member State and the amount of import or export duty corresponding to that debt is lower than EUR 10,000, the customs debt shall be deemed to have been incurred in the Member State where the finding was made.

CHAPTER 2

GUARANTEE FOR A POTENTIAL OR EXISTING CUSTOMS DEBT

Article 61

General provisions

1. This Chapter shall apply to guarantees both for customs debts which have been incurred and for those which may be incurred, unless it is otherwise specified.
2. Customs authorities may require a guarantee to be provided in order to ensure payment of the amount of import or export duty corresponding to a customs debt. Where the relevant provisions so provide, the guarantee required may also cover other charges as provided for under other relevant provisions in force.
3. Where the customs authorities require a guarantee to be provided, it shall be required from the debtor or the person who may become the debtor. They may also permit the guarantee to be provided by a person other than the person from whom it is required.
4. Without prejudice to Article 69, the customs authorities shall require only one guarantee to be provided in respect of specific goods or a specific declaration.

The guarantee provided for a specific declaration shall apply to the amount of import or export duty corresponding to the customs debt and other charges in respect of all goods covered by or released against that declaration, whether or not that declaration is correct.

If the guarantee has not been released, it may also be used, within the limits of the secured amount, for the recovery of amounts of import or export duty and other charges payable following post-release control of those goods.

5. At the request of the person referred to in paragraph 3 of this article, the customs authorities may, in accordance with Article 67(1) and (2), authorize the provision of a comprehensive guarantee to cover the amount of import or export duty corresponding to the customs debt in respect of two or more operations, declarations or customs procedures.
6. No guarantee shall be required from States, regional and local government authorities or other bodies governed by public law, in respect of the activities in which they engage as public authorities.
7. The customs authorities may waive the requirement for provision of a guarantee where the amount of import or export duty to be secured does not exceed the statistical threshold for declarations laid down in accordance with Article 12 of Council Regulation (EC) No 1172/95¹⁴.
8. A guarantee accepted or authorized by the customs authorities shall be valid throughout the customs territory of the Community, for the purposes for which it is given.
9. The measures designed to amend non-essential elements of this Regulation, by supplementing it, laying down the following:
 - conditions for the implementation of this article,
 - cases, other than those laid down in paragraph 6, in which no guarantee is to be required,
 - exceptions to paragraph 8

shall be adopted in accordance with the regulatory procedure with scrutiny referred to in Article 196(4).

¹⁴ OJ L 118, 25.5.1995, p. 10.

Article 62

Compulsory guarantee

1. Where it is compulsory for a guarantee to be provided, and subject to the rules adopted pursuant to paragraph 3, the customs authorities shall fix the amount of such guarantee at a level equal to the precise amount of import or export duty corresponding to the customs debt and of other charges where that amount can be established with certainty at the time when the guarantee is required.

Where it is not possible to establish the precise amount, the guarantee shall be fixed at the maximum amount, as estimated by the customs authorities, of import or export duty corresponding to the customs debt and of other charges which have been or may be incurred.

2. Without prejudice to Article 67, where a comprehensive guarantee is provided for the amount of import or export duty corresponding to customs debts and other charges which vary in amount over time, the amount of such guarantee shall be set at a level enabling the amount of import or export duty corresponding to customs debts and other charges to be covered at all times.
3. The Commission shall, in accordance with the procedure referred to in Article 196(2), adopt measures for the implementation of paragraph 1 of this article.

Article 63

Optional guarantee

Where the provision of a guarantee is optional, such guarantee shall in any case be required by the customs authorities if they consider that the amount of import or export duty corresponding to a customs debt and other charges are not certain to be paid within the prescribed period. Its amount shall be fixed by those authorities so as not to exceed the level referred to in Article 62.

The measures designed to amend non-essential elements of this Regulation, by supplementing it, laying down when a guarantee is optional shall be adopted in accordance with the regulatory procedure with scrutiny referred to in Article 196(4).

Article 64

Provision of a guarantee

1. A guarantee may be provided in one of the following forms:
 - (a) by a cash deposit or by any other means of payment recognized by the customs authorities as being equivalent to a cash deposit, made in euro or in the currency of the Member State in which the guarantee is required;
 - (b) by an undertaking given by a guarantor;
 - (c) by another form of guarantee which provides equivalent assurance that the amount of import or export duty corresponding to the customs debt and other charges will be paid.

The measures designed to amend non-essential elements of this Regulation, by supplementing it, laying down the forms of guarantee referred in point (c) of the first subparagraph of this paragraph shall be adopted in accordance with the regulatory procedure with scrutiny referred to in Article 196(4).

2. A guarantee in the form of a cash deposit or payment deemed equivalent to a cash deposit shall be given in accordance with the provisions in force in the Member State in which the guarantee is required.

Article 65

Choice of guarantee

The person required to provide a guarantee may choose between the forms of guarantee laid down in Article 64(1).

However, the customs authorities may refuse to accept the form of guarantee chosen where it is incompatible with the proper functioning of the customs procedure concerned.

The customs authorities may require that the form of guarantee chosen be maintained for a specific period.

Article 66

Guarantor

1. The guarantor referred to in point (b) of Article 64(1) must be a third person established in the customs territory of the Community. The guarantor must be approved by the customs authorities requiring the guarantee, unless the guarantor is a credit institution or a financial institution or an insurance company, accredited in the Community in accordance with Community provisions in force.
2. The guarantor shall undertake in writing to pay the secured amount of import or export duty corresponding to a customs debt and other charges.
3. The customs authorities may refuse to approve the guarantor or type of guarantee proposed where either does not appear certain to ensure payment of the amount of import or export duty corresponding to the customs debt and of other charges within the prescribed period.

Article 67

Comprehensive guarantee

1. The authorization referred to in Article 61(5) shall be granted only to persons who satisfy the following conditions:
 - (a) they are established in the customs territory of the Community;
 - (b) a record of compliance with customs and tax requirements;
 - (c) they are regular users of the customs procedures involved or are known to the customs authorities to have the capacity to fulfil their obligation in relation to these procedures.

2. Where a comprehensive guarantee is to be provided for customs debts and other charges which may be incurred, an economic operator may be authorised to use a comprehensive guarantee with a reduced amount or to have a guarantee waiver provided that he fulfils the following criteria:
 - (a) a satisfactory system of managing commercial and, where appropriate, transport records, which allows appropriate customs controls;
 - (b) proven solvency.

3. The Commission shall, in accordance with the procedure referred to in Article 196(4), adopt measures governing the procedure for granting of authorizations under paragraphs 1 and 2 of this article.

Article 68

Additional provisions relating to the use of guarantees

1. In cases where a customs debt may be incurred in the framework of special procedures, paragraphs 2 and 3 shall apply.

2. The guarantee waiver authorized in accordance with Article 67(2) shall not apply to goods which are considered to present increased risks of fraud.
3. The Commission shall, in accordance with the procedure referred to in Article 196(2), adopt measures for the following:
 - (a) implementation of paragraph 2;
 - (b) temporarily prohibiting the use of a comprehensive guarantee with a reduced amount referred to in Article 67(2);
 - (c) as an exceptional measure in special circumstances, temporarily prohibiting the use of a comprehensive guarantee in respect of goods which have been identified as being subject to large-scale fraud while under a comprehensive guarantee.

Article 69

Additional or replacement guarantee

Where the customs authorities establish that the guarantee provided does not ensure, or is no longer certain or sufficient to ensure, payment of the amount of import or export duty corresponding to the customs debt and other charges within the prescribed period, they shall require any of the persons referred to in Article 61(3), either to provide an additional guarantee or to replace the original guarantee with a new guarantee, according to his choice.

Article 70

Release of the guarantee

1. The customs authorities shall release the guarantee immediately when the customs debt or liability for other charges is extinguished or can no longer arise.

2. Where the customs debt or liability for other charges has been extinguished in part, or may arise only in respect of part, of the amount which has been secured, a corresponding part of the guarantee shall be released accordingly at the request of the person concerned, unless the amount involved does not justify such action.
3. The Commission may, in accordance with the procedure referred to in Article 196(2), adopt measures for the implementation of this article.

CHAPTER 3

RECOVERY AND PAYMENT OF DUTY AND REPAYMENT AND REMISSION OF THE AMOUNT OF IMPORT AND EXPORT DUTY

Section 1

Determination of the amount of import or export duty, notification of the customs debt and entry in the accounts

Article 71

Determination of the amount of import or export duty

1. The amount of import or export duty payable shall be determined by the customs authorities responsible for the place where the customs debt is incurred, or is deemed to have been incurred in accordance with Article 60, as soon as they have the necessary information.
2. Without prejudice to Article 29, the customs authorities may accept the amount of import or export duty payable determined by the declarant.

Article 72

Notification of the customs debt

1. The customs debt shall be notified to the debtor in the form prescribed at the place where the customs debt is incurred, or is deemed to have been incurred in accordance with Article 60.

The notification referred to in the first subparagraph shall not be made in the following situations:

- (a) where, pending a final determination of the amount of import or export duty, a provisional commercial policy measure taking the form of a duty has been imposed;

- (b) where the amount of import or export duty payable exceeds that determined on the basis of a decision made in accordance with Article 21;
- (c) where the original decision not to notify the customs debt or to notify it with an amount of import or export duty at a figure less than the amount of import or export payable was taken on the basis of general provisions invalidated at a later date by a court decision;
- (d) in cases where the customs authorities are exempted under the customs legislation from notification of the customs debt.

The Commission shall, in accordance with the procedure referred to in Article 196(2), adopt measures for the implementation of point (d) of the second subparagraph of this paragraph.

- 2. Where the amount of import or export duty payable is equal to the amount entered in the customs declaration, release of the goods by the customs authorities shall be equivalent to notifying the debtor of the customs debt.
- 3. Where paragraph 2 of this article does not apply, the customs debt shall be notified to the debtor within fourteen days of the date on which the customs authorities are in a position to determine the amount of import or export duty payable.

Article 73

Statute of limitation of the customs debt

- 1. No customs debt shall be notified to the debtor after the expiry of a period of three years from the date on which the customs debt was incurred.
- 2. Where the customs debt is incurred as the result of an act which, at the time it was committed, was liable to give rise to criminal court proceedings, the three year period laid down in paragraph 1 shall be extended to a period of ten years.

3. Where an appeal is lodged under Article 24, the periods laid down in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this article shall be suspended, for the duration of the appeal proceedings, from the date on which the appeal is lodged.
4. Where liability for a customs debt is reinstated pursuant to Article 85(5) the periods laid down in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this article shall be considered as suspended from the date on which the repayment or remission application was submitted in accordance with Article 90, until a decision on the repayment or remission is taken.

Article 74

Entry in the accounts

1. The customs authorities referred to in Article 71 shall enter in their accounts, in accordance with the national legislation, the amount of import or export duty payable as determined in accordance with that Article.

The first subparagraph shall not apply in cases referred to in the second subparagraph of Article 72(1).

The customs authorities need not enter in the accounts amounts of import or export duty which, pursuant to Article 73, correspond to a customs debt which could no longer be notified to the debtor.

2. The Member States shall determine the practical procedures for the entry in the accounts of the amounts of import or export duty. Those procedures may differ according to whether or not, in view of the circumstances in which the customs debt was incurred, the customs authorities are satisfied that those amounts will be paid.

Article 75

Time of entry in the accounts

1. Where a customs debt is incurred as a result of the acceptance of the customs declaration of goods for a customs procedure, other than temporary admission with partial relief from import duties, or of any other act having the same legal effect as such acceptance, the customs authorities shall enter the amount of import or export duty payable in the accounts within fourteen days of the release of the goods.

However, provided that payment has been guaranteed, the total amount of import or export duty relating to all the goods released to one and the same person during a period fixed by the customs authorities, which may not exceed 31 days, may be covered by a single entry in the accounts at the end of that period. Such entry in the accounts shall take place within fourteen days of the expiry of the period concerned.

2. Where goods may be released subject to certain conditions which govern either the determination of the amount of import or export duty payable or its collection, entry in the accounts shall take place within fourteen days of the day on which the amount of import or export duty payable is determined or the obligation to pay that duty is fixed.

However, where the customs debt relates to a provisional commercial policy measure taking the form of a duty, the amount of import or export duty payable shall be entered in the accounts within two months of the date of publication in the Official Journal of the European Union of the Regulation establishing the definitive commercial policy measure.

3. Where a customs debt is incurred in circumstances not covered by paragraph 1, the amount of import or export duty payable shall be entered in the accounts within fourteen days of the date on which the customs authorities are in a position to determine the amount of import or export duty in question and take a decision.

4. Paragraph 3 shall apply mutatis mutandis with regard to the amount of import or export duty to be recovered or which remains to be recovered where the amount of import or export duty payable has not been entered in the accounts in accordance with paragraphs 1, 2 and 3, or has been determined and entered in the accounts at a level lower than the amount payable.
5. The time limits for entry in the accounts laid down in paragraphs 1, 2 and 3 shall not apply in unforeseeable circumstances or in cases of force majeure.

Article 76

Article 77

General time limits for payment and supervision of payment

1. Amounts of import or export duty, corresponding to a customs debt notified in accordance with Article 72 shall be paid by the debtor within the period prescribed by the customs authorities.

Without prejudice to Article 25(2), that period shall not exceed ten days following notification to the debtor of the customs debt. In the case of aggregation of entries in the accounts under the conditions laid down in the second subparagraph of Article 75(1), it shall be so fixed as not to enable the debtor to obtain a longer period for payment than if he had been granted deferred payment in accordance with Article 79.

Extension of that period may be granted by the customs authorities at the request of the debtor where the amount of import or export duty payable has been determined in the course of post-release control as referred to in Article 29. Without prejudice to Article 82(1), such extensions shall not exceed the time necessary for the debtor to take the appropriate steps to discharge his obligation.

2. If the debtor is entitled to any of the payment facilities laid down in Articles 79 to 82, payment shall be made within the period or periods specified in relation to those facilities.
3. The measures designed to amend non-essential elements of this Regulation, by supplementing it, laying down the conditions for the suspension of the time limit for payment of the amount of import or export duty corresponding to a customs debt in the following situations:
 - (a) where an application for remission of duty is made in accordance with Article 90;
 - (b) where goods are to be confiscated, destroyed or abandoned to the State;
 - (c) where the customs debt was incurred pursuant to Article 51 and there is more than one debtor

shall be adopted in accordance with the regulatory procedure with scrutiny referred to in Article 196(4).

These measures shall lay down, in particular, the period of the suspension, taking into account the time which is reasonable for the conclusion of any formalities or for the recovery of the amount of import or export duty corresponding to the customs debt, particularly in respect of the implementation of the second paragraph of Article 56.

Article 78

Payment

1. Payment shall be made in cash or by any other means with similar discharging effect, including by adjustment of credit balance, in accordance with the national legislation.
2. Payment may be made by a third person instead of the debtor.
3. The debtor may in any case pay all or part of the amount of import or export duty without awaiting expiry of the period he has been granted for payment.

Article 79

Deferment of payment

Without prejudice to Article 85, the customs authorities shall, at the request of the person concerned and upon provision of a guarantee, permit deferment of payment of the duty payable in any of the following ways:

- (a) separately in respect of each amount of import or export duty entered in the accounts in accordance with the first subparagraph of Article 75(1), or Article 75(4);
- (b) globally in respect of all amounts of import or export duty entered in the accounts in accordance with the first subparagraph of Article 75(1) during a period fixed by the customs authorities and not exceeding 31 days;
- (c) globally in respect of all amounts of import or export duty forming a single entry in accordance with the second subparagraph of Article 75(1).

Article 80

Time limits for deferred payment

1. The period for which payment is deferred under Article 79 shall be 30 days.
2. Where payment is deferred in accordance with point (a) of Article 79, the period shall begin on the day following that on which the customs debt is notified to the debtor.
3. Where payment is deferred in accordance with point (b) of Article 79, the period shall begin on the day following that on which the aggregation period ends. It shall be reduced by the number of days corresponding to half the number of days covered by the aggregation period.
4. Where payment is deferred in accordance with point (c) of Article 79, the period shall begin on the day following the end of the period fixed for release of the goods in question. It shall be reduced by the number of days corresponding to half the number of days covered by the period concerned.
5. Where the number of days in the periods referred to in paragraphs 3 and 4 is an odd number, the number of days to be deducted from the 30-day period pursuant to those paragraphs shall be equal to half the next lowest even number.
6. Where the periods referred to in paragraphs 3 and 4 are calendar weeks, Member States may provide that the amount of import or export duty in respect of which payment has been deferred is to be paid on the Friday of the fourth week following the calendar week in question at the latest.

If these periods are calendar months, Member States may provide that the amount of import or export duty in respect of which payment has been deferred is to be paid by the sixteenth day of the month following the calendar month in question.

Article 81

Implementing measures

The measures designed to amend non-essential elements of this Regulation, by supplementing it, laying down the rules for deferment of payment in cases where the customs declaration is simplified in accordance with Article 125 shall be adopted in accordance with the regulatory procedure with scrutiny referred to in Article 196(4).

Article 82

Other payment facilities

1. The customs authorities may grant the debtor payment facilities other than deferred payment on condition that a guarantee is provided.

Where facilities are granted pursuant to the first subparagraph, credit interest shall be charged on the amount of import or export duty. The rate of credit interest shall be the interest rate applied by the European Central Bank to its most recent main refinancing operation carried out before the first calendar day of the half-year in question ("the reference rate"), plus one percentage point.

For a Member State which is not participating in the third stage of economic and monetary union, the reference rate referred to above shall be the equivalent rate set by its national central bank. In this case, the reference rate in force on the first calendar day of the half-year in question shall apply for the following six months.

2. The customs authorities may refrain from requiring a guarantee or from charging credit interest where it is established, on the basis of a documented assessment of the situation of the debtor, that this would create serious economic or social difficulties.
3. The Commission may, in accordance with the procedure referred to in Article 196(2), adopt measures for the implementation of paragraphs 1 and 2.

Article 83

Enforcement of payment and arrears

1. Where the amount of import or export duty payable has not been paid within the prescribed period, the customs authorities shall secure payment of that amount by all means available to them according to the law of the Member State.

The measures designed to amend non-essential elements of this Regulation, by supplementing it, laying down measures in respect of securing payment from guarantors within the framework of a special procedure shall be adopted in accordance with the regulatory procedure with scrutiny referred to in Article 196(4).

2. Interest on arrears shall be charged on the amount of import or export duty from the date of expiry of the prescribed period until the date of payment.

The rate of interest on arrears shall be the interest rate applied by the European Central Bank to its most recent main refinancing operation carried out before the first calendar day of the half-year in question ("the reference rate"), plus two percentage points.

For a Member State which is not participating in the third stage of economic and monetary union, the reference rate referred to above shall be the equivalent rate set by its national central bank. In this case, the reference rate in force on the first calendar day of the half-year in question shall apply for the following six months.

3. Where a customs debt has been notified pursuant to Article 72(3), interest on arrears shall be charged over and above the amount of import or export duty, from the date on which the customs debt was incurred until the date of its notification.

The rate of interest on arrears shall be set in accordance with paragraph 2.

4. The customs authorities may refrain from charging interest on arrears where it is established, on the basis of a documented assessment of the situation of the debtor, that to charge it would create serious economic or social difficulties.
5. The measures designed to amend non-essential elements of this Regulation, by supplementing it, laying down the cases, in terms of time and amounts, in which the customs authorities may waive the collection of interest on arrears shall be adopted in accordance with the regulatory procedure with scrutiny referred to in Article 196(4).

Section 3

Repayment and remission of the amount of import or export duty

Article 85

Repayment and remission

1. Subject to the conditions laid down in this Section, amounts of import or export duty shall, provided that the amount to be repaid or remitted exceeds a certain amount, be repaid or remitted on the following grounds:
 - (a) overcharged amounts of import or export duty;
 - (b) defective goods or goods not complying with the terms of the contract;
 - (c) error by the competent authorities;
 - (d) equity.

In addition, where an amount of import or export duty have been paid and the corresponding customs declaration is invalidated, in accordance with Article 121, this amount shall be repaid.

2. Subject to the rules of competence for a decision, where the customs authorities themselves discover within the periods referred to in Article 90(1) that an amount of import or export duty is repayable or remissible pursuant to Articles 86, 88 or 89, they shall repay or remit on their own initiative.
3. No repayment or remission shall be granted when the situation which led to the notification of the customs debt results from deception by the debtor.

4. Repayment shall not give rise to the payment of interest by the customs authorities concerned.

However, interest shall be paid where a decision granting repayment is not implemented within three months of the date on which that decision was taken, unless the failure to meet the deadline was outside of the control of the customs authorities.

In such cases, the interest shall be paid from the date of expiry of the three month period until the date of repayment. The rate of interest shall be established according to Article 82.

5. Where the competent authority has granted repayment or remission in error, the original customs debt shall be reinstated in so far as it is not time-barred under Article 73.

In such cases, any interest paid under the second subparagraph of paragraph 4 must be reimbursed.

Article 86

Repayment and remission of overcharged amounts of import or export duty

An amount of import or export duty shall be repaid or remitted in so far as the amount corresponding to the customs debt initially notified exceeds the amount payable, or the customs debt was notified to the debtor contrary to points (c) or (d) of Article 72(1).

Article 87

Defective goods or goods not complying with the terms of the contract

1. An amount of import duty shall be repaid or remitted if the notification of the customs debt relates to goods which have been rejected by the importer because, at the time of release, they were defective or did not comply with the terms of the contract on the basis of which they were imported.

Defective goods shall be deemed to include goods damaged before their release.

2. Repayment or remission of import duties shall be granted provided the goods have not been used, except for such initial use as may have been necessary to establish that they were defective or did not comply with the terms of the contract and provided that they are exported from the customs territory of the Community.
3. Instead of being exported, at the request of the person concerned, the customs authorities shall permit the goods to be placed under the inward processing procedure, including for destruction, or the external transit, the customs warehousing or the free zone procedure.

Article 88

Repayment or remission on account of error by the competent authorities

1. In situations other than those referred to in the second subparagraph of Article 85(1) and in Articles 86, 87 and 89, an amount of import or export duty shall be repaid or remitted where, as a result of an error on the part of the competent authorities, the amount corresponding to the customs debt initially notified was lower than the amount payable, provided the following conditions are met:
 - (a) the debtor could not reasonably have detected that error;
 - (b) the debtor was acting in good faith.
2. Where the preferential treatment of the goods is granted on the basis of a system of administrative co-operation involving the authorities of a country or territory outside the customs territory of the Community, the issue of a certificate by those authorities, should it prove to be incorrect, shall constitute an error which could not reasonably have been detected within the meaning of point (a) of paragraph 1.

The issue of an incorrect certificate shall not, however, constitute an error where the certificate is based on an incorrect account of the facts provided by the exporter, except where it is evident that the issuing authorities were aware or should have been aware that the goods did not satisfy the conditions laid down for entitlement to the preferential treatment.

The debtor shall be considered to be in good faith if he can demonstrate that, during the period of the trading operations concerned, he has taken due care to ensure that all the conditions for the preferential treatment have been fulfilled.

The debtor may not rely on a plea of good faith if the Commission has published a notice in the Official Journal of the European Union, stating that there are grounds for doubt concerning the proper application of the preferential arrangements by the beneficiary country or territory.

Article 89

Repayment and remission in equity

In situations other than those referred to in the second subparagraph of Article 85(1) and in Articles 86, 87 and 88, an amount of import or export duty shall be repaid or remitted in the interest of equity where a customs debt is incurred under special circumstances in which no deception or obvious negligence may be attributed to the debtor.

Article 90

Procedure for repayment and remission

1. Applications for repayment or remission in accordance with Article 85 shall be submitted to the appropriate customs office within the following periods:
 - (a) in the case of overcharged duties, error by the competent authorities, or equity, within three years of the date of notification of the customs debt;

- (b) in the case of defective goods or goods not complying with the terms of the contract, within one year of the date of notification of the customs debt;
- (c) in the case of invalidation of a customs declaration, within the period specified in the rules applicable to invalidation.

The period specified in points (a) and (b) of the first subparagraph shall be extended where the applicant provides evidence that he was prevented from submitting his application within the prescribed period as a result of unforeseeable circumstances or force majeure.

2. Where an appeal has been lodged under Article 24 against the notification of the customs debt, the relevant period specified in the first subparagraph of paragraph 1 of this article shall be suspended, from the date on which the appeal is lodged, for the duration of the appeal proceedings.

Article 91

Implementing measures

The Commission shall, in accordance with the procedure referred to in Article 196(2), adopt measures for the implementation of this Section. These measures shall lay down, in particular, the cases in which the Commission shall, in accordance with the procedure referred to in Article 196(3), decide whether remission or repayment of an amount of import or export duty is justified.

CHAPTER 4

EXTINGUISHMENT OF CUSTOMS DEBT

Article 92

Extinguishment

1. Without prejudice to Article 73 and the provision in force relating to non-recovery of the amount of import or export duty corresponding to a customs debt in the event of the legally established insolvency of the debtor, an obligation to pay the customs debt on importation or exportation shall be extinguished in any of the following ways:
 - (a) by payment of the amount of import or export duty;
 - (b) subject to paragraph 4, by remission of the amount of import or export duty;
 - (c) where, in respect of goods declared for a customs procedure entailing the obligation to pay duties, the customs declaration is invalidated;
 - (d) where goods liable to import or export duties are confiscated;
 - (e) where goods liable to import or export duties are seized and simultaneously or subsequently confiscated;
 - (f) where goods liable to import and export duties are destroyed under customs supervision or abandoned to the State;
 - (g) where the disappearance of the goods or the non-fulfilment of obligations arising from the customs legislation results from the total destruction or irretrievable loss of those goods as a result of the actual nature of the goods or unforeseeable circumstances or force majeure, or as a consequence of instruction by the customs authorities; for the purpose of this point, goods shall be considered as irretrievably lost when they have been rendered unusable by any person;

- (h) where the customs debt was incurred pursuant to Article 51 or 54 and where the following conditions are fulfilled:
 - (i) the failure which lead to the incurrence of a customs debt had no significant effect on the correct operation of the customs procedure concerned and did not constitute an attempt at deception,
 - (ii) all of the formalities necessary to regularize the situation of the goods are subsequently carried out;
- (j) where goods released for free circulation duty-free, or at a reduced rate of import duty by virtue of their end-use, have been exported with the permission of the customs authorities;
- (k) where it was incurred pursuant to Article 50 and where the formalities carried out in order to enable the preferential tariff treatment referred to in that Article to be granted are cancelled;
- (l) where, subject to paragraph 5 of this article, the customs debt was incurred pursuant to Article 51 and evidence is provided to the satisfaction of the customs authorities that the goods have not been used or consumed and have been exported from the customs territory of the Community.

2. In the event of confiscation, as referred to in point (d) of paragraph 1, the customs debt shall, nevertheless, for the purposes of penalties applicable to customs offences, be deemed not to have been extinguished where, under the law of a Member State, customs duties or the existence of a customs debt provide the basis for determining penalties.

3. Where, in accordance with point (g) of paragraph 1, a customs debt is extinguished in respect of goods released for free circulation duty-free or at a reduced rate of import duty on account of their end-use, any scrap or waste resulting from their destruction shall be deemed to be non-Community goods.
4. Where several persons are liable for payment of the amount of import or export duty corresponding to the customs debt and remission is granted, the customs debt shall be extinguished only in respect of the person or persons to whom the remission is granted.
5. In the case referred to in point (l) of paragraph 1, the customs debt shall not be extinguished in respect of any person or persons who attempted deception.
6. Where the customs debt was incurred pursuant to Article 51, it shall be extinguished with regard to the person whose behaviour did not involve any attempt at deception and who contributed to the fight against fraud.
7. The Commission may, in accordance with the procedure referred to in Article 196(2), adopt measures for the implementation of of this article.

Goods brought into the customs territory of the Community shall be covered by an entry summary declaration, with the exception of means of transport temporarily imported and means of transport and the goods carried thereon only passing through the territorial waters or the airspace of the customs territory of the Community without a stop within that territory.
2. Except where otherwise specified in the customs legislation, an entry summary declaration shall be lodged at the competent customs office before the goods are brought into the customs territory of the Community.

Customs authorities may accept, instead of the lodging of the entry summary declaration, the lodging of a notification and access to the entry summary declaration data in the economic operator's computer system.

3. The measures designed to amend non-essential elements of this Regulation, by supplementing it, laying down the following:
 - (a) the cases, other than those referred to in paragraph 1 of this article, and the conditions under which the requirement for an entry summary declaration may be waived or adapted;

- (b) the deadline by which the entry summary declaration shall be lodged or made available before the goods are brought into the customs territory of the Community;
- (c) the rules for exceptions from and variations to the deadline referred to in point (b);
- (d) the determination of the competent customs office at which the entry summary declaration shall be lodged or made available and where risk analysis and risk-based entry controls are to be carried out

shall be adopted in accordance with the regulatory procedure with scrutiny referred to in Article 196(4).

In adopting these measures, account shall be taken of the following:

- (i) special circumstances;
- (ii) the application of these measures to certain types of goods traffic, modes of transport or economic operators;
- (iii) international agreements which provide for special security arrangements.

Article 94

Lodgement and responsible person

1. The entry summary declaration shall be lodged using an electronic data processing technique. Commercial, port or transport information may be used provided it contains the necessary particulars for an entry summary declaration.

Customs authorities may, in exceptional circumstances, accept paper-based entry summary declarations, provided that they apply the same level of risk management as that applied to entry summary declarations made using an electronic data processing technique and that the requirements for the exchange of such data with other customs offices can be met.

2. The entry summary declaration shall be lodged by the person who brings the goods, or who assumes responsibility for the carriage of the goods, into the customs territory of the Community.
3. Notwithstanding the obligations of the person referred to in paragraph 2, the entry summary declaration may be lodged instead by one of the following persons:
 - (a) the importer or consignee or other person in whose name or on whose behalf the person referred to in paragraph 2 acts;
 - (b) any person who is able to present the goods in question or to have them presented to the competent customs authority.
4. Where the entry summary declaration is lodged by a person other than the operator of the means of transport by which the goods are brought on to Community customs territory, that operator shall lodge with the appropriate customs office a notification of arrival in the form of a manifest, a dispatch note or a load sheet containing the information required in order to enable all the goods transported which are to be covered by an entry summary declaration to be identified.

Pursuant to the procedure referred to in Article 196(2) the Commission shall lay down the measures stipulating the information which must appear on the notification of arrival.

Paragraph 1 shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to the notification of arrival mentioned in the first subparagraph of this paragraph.

Article 95

They shall remain under such supervision for as long as is necessary to determine their customs status and shall not be removed therefrom without the permission of the customs authorities.

4. Paragraph 1 shall not preclude application of any special provisions with respect to letters, postcards and printed matter or to goods carried by travellers, goods transported within frontier zones or in pipelines and wires as well as any other traffic of negligible economic importance, provided that customs supervision and customs control possibilities are not thereby jeopardised.
5. Paragraph 1 shall not apply to means of transport and goods carried thereon only passing through the territorial waters or the airspace of the customs territory of the Community without a stop within that territory.

Article 99

Where, by reason of unforeseeable circumstances or force majeure, the obligation laid down in Article 98(1) cannot be complied with, the person bound by that obligation or any other person acting on that person's behalf shall inform the customs authorities of the situation without delay. Where the unforeseeable circumstances or force majeure do not result in total loss of the goods, the customs authorities shall also be informed of their precise location.

2. Where, by reason of unforeseeable circumstances or force majeure, a vessel or aircraft covered by Article 98(5) is forced to put into port or to land temporarily in the customs territory of the Community and the obligation laid down in Article 98(1) cannot be complied with, the person who brought the vessel or aircraft into the customs territory of the Community, or any other person acting on that person's behalf, shall inform the customs authorities of the situation without delay.

However, such permission shall not be required in the event of an imminent danger necessitating the immediate unloading of all or part of the goods. In that case, the customs authorities shall immediately be informed accordingly.

2. The customs authorities may at any time require goods to be unloaded and unpacked for the purpose of examining them, taking samples or examining the means of transport carrying them.

3. Goods presented to customs shall not be removed from the place where they have been presented without the permission of the customs authorities.

Article 104

Goods deemed to be placed in temporary storage

1. Except where goods are immediately placed under a customs procedure for which a customs declaration has been accepted, or have been placed in a free zone, non-Community goods presented to customs shall be deemed to have been placed under temporary storage, in accordance with Article 160.
2. Without prejudice to the obligation laid down in Article 93(2) and the exceptions or waiver provided for by the measures adopted under Article 93(3), where it is found that non-Community goods presented to customs are not covered by an entry summary declaration, the holder of the goods shall lodge such a declaration immediately.

CHAPTER 1

CUSTOMS STATUS OF GOODS

Article 107

Presumption of customs status of goods as Community goods

1. Without prejudice to Article 171 all goods in the customs territory of the Community shall be presumed to be Community goods, unless it is established that they do not have the customs status of goods as Community goods.

Where the declaration takes the form of an entry in the declarant's records and access to this data by the customs authorities, the declaration shall be deemed to have been accepted at the moment at which the goods are entered into the records. The customs authorities may, without prejudice to the legal obligations of the declarant or to the application of security and safety controls waive the obligation for the goods to be presented or to be made available for customs control.

2. Without prejudice to Article 117(2) or the second subparagraph of paragraph 1 of this article, where a customs declaration is lodged at a customs office other than the office at which the goods are presented, the declaration shall be accepted when the office at which the goods are presented confirms the availability of goods for customs controls.

2. The declaration shall not be invalidated after the goods have been released.

The measures designed to amend non-essential elements of this Regulation, by supplementing it, laying down exceptions to the first subparagraph of this paragraph shall be adopted in accordance with the regulatory procedure with scrutiny referred to in Article 196(4).

Facilitation of the drawing up of customs declarations for goods falling under different tariff sub-headings

Where a consignment is made up of goods falling within different tariff sub-headings, and dealing with each of those goods in accordance with its tariff sub-headings for the purpose of drawing up the customs declaration would entail a burden of work and expense disproportionate to the import duties chargeable, the customs authorities may, at the request of the declarant, agree that import duties be charged on the whole consignment on the basis of the tariff sub-headings of the goods which are subject to the highest rate of import or export duty.

The Commission may, in accordance with the procedure referred to in Article 196(2), adopt measures for the implementation of this article.

The costs incurred shall be borne by the declarant.
2. The declarant shall have the right to be present or represented when the goods are examined and when samples are taken. Where the customs authorities have reasonable grounds, they may require the declarant to be present or represented when the goods are examined or samples are taken or to provide them with the assistance necessary to facilitate such examination or taking of samples.

3. Provided that samples are taken in accordance with the provisions in force, the customs authorities shall not be liable for payment of any compensation in respect thereof but shall bear the costs of their analysis or examination.

Article 126 (Formerly Article 120)

Partial examination and sampling of goods

1. Where only part of the goods covered by a customs declaration is examined, or samples are taken, the results of the partial examination, or of the analysis or examination of the samples, shall be taken to apply to all the goods covered by the same declaration.

However, the declarant may request a further examination or sampling of the goods if he considers that the results of the partial examination, or of the analysis or examination of the samples taken, are not valid as regards the remainder of the goods declared. The request shall be granted, provided that the goods have not been released or that, if they have been released, the declarant proves that they have not been altered in any way.

2. For the purposes of paragraph 1, where a customs declaration covers two or more items, the particulars relating to each item shall be deemed to constitute a separate declaration.

Those identification measures shall have the same legal effect throughout the customs territory of the Community.

2. Means of identification affixed to the goods or means of transport shall be removed or destroyed only by the customs authorities or, where they are authorized to do so by the customs authorities, by economic operators, unless, as a result of unforeseeable circumstances or force majeure, their removal or destruction is essential to ensure the protection of the goods or the means of transport.

However, without prejudice to the third subparagraph, the first subparagraph shall not apply to temporary admission with partial relief from import duties.

Where, pursuant to the provisions governing the customs procedure for which the goods are declared, the customs authorities require the provision of a guarantee, those goods shall not be released for the customs procedure in question until such guarantee is provided.

2. Without prejudice to the provisions applicable to supplies or to victualling storage, where the procedure concerned so provides, paragraph 1 of this article shall not preclude the use or consumption of goods of which the release for free circulation or temporary admission would not entail application of import duties or measures laid down under the common agricultural or commercial policies.

In the case of such use or consumption, no customs declaration for the release for free circulation or temporary admission procedure shall be required.

Such declaration shall, however, be required if such goods are subject to a tariff quota or ceiling.

Article 170

 - (b) it is possible to ensure that the goods placed under the procedure can be identified, except where, in view of the nature of the goods or of the intended use, the absence of identification measures is not liable to give rise to any abuse of the procedure or, in the case referred to in Article 150, where compliance with the conditions laid down in respect of equivalent goods can be verified;
 - (c) the holder of the procedure is established outside the customs territory of the Community, except where otherwise provided for in the customs legislation;

2. The maximum period during which goods may remain under the temporary admission procedure for the same purpose and under the responsibility of the same holder of the authorization shall be 24 months, even where the procedure was discharged by placing the goods under another special procedure and subsequently placing them under the temporary admission procedure again.
3. Where, in exceptional circumstances, the authorized use cannot be achieved within the periods referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2, the customs authorities may, at the duly justified request of the holder of the authorization, extend those periods for a reasonable duration.

Article 174

Situations covered by temporary admission

The measures designed to amend non-essential elements of this Regulation, by supplementing it, laying down the cases in which, and the conditions under which, the temporary admission procedure may be used and total or partial relief from import duties may be granted shall be adopted in accordance with the regulatory procedure with scrutiny referred to in Article 196(4).

In adopting these measures, account shall be taken of international agreements and of the nature and the use of the goods.

Article 175

Amount of import duty in case of temporary admission with partial relief from import duties

1. The amount of import duties in respect of goods placed under the temporary admission procedure with partial relief from import duties shall be set at 3% of the amount of import duty which would have been payable on those goods had they been released for free circulation on the date on which they were placed under the temporary admission procedure.

That amount shall be payable for every month or fraction of a month during which the goods have been placed under temporary admission with partial relief from import duty.

2. The amount of import duty shall not exceed that which would have been payable if the goods in question had been released for free circulation on the date on which they were placed under the temporary admission procedure.

CHAPTER 5

PROCESSING

Section 1

General provisions

Article 177

Rate of yield

Except where a rate of yield has been specified in Community legislation governing specific fields, the customs authorities shall set either the rate of yield or average rate of yield of the processing operation or where appropriate, the method of determining such rate.

The rate of yield or average rate of yield shall be determined on the basis of the actual circumstances in which processing operations are, or are to be, carried out. This rate may be adjusted, where appropriate, in accordance with Articles 19 and 20.

Section 2

Inward processing

Article 178

Scope

1. Without prejudice to Article 150, under the inward processing procedure non-Community goods may be used in the customs territory of the Community in one or more processing operations without such goods being subject to any of the following:
 - (a) import duties;
 - (b) other charges as provided for under other relevant provisions in force;
 - (c) commercial policy measures, in-so-far as they do not prohibit the entry or exit of goods into or from the customs territory of the Community.

2. The inward processing procedure may be used in cases other than repair and destruction only where, without prejudice to the use of production accessories, the goods placed under the procedure can be identified in the processed products.

In the case referred to in Article 150, the procedure may be used where compliance with the conditions laid down in respect of equivalent goods can be verified.

3. In addition to paragraphs 1 and 2, the inward processing procedure may also be used for the following goods:
 - (a) goods intended to undergo operations to ensure their compliance with technical requirements for their release for free circulation;
 - (b) goods which have to undergo usual forms of handling in accordance with Article 149.

Article 179

Period for discharge

1. The customs authorities shall specify the period within which the inward processing procedure is to be discharged, in accordance with Article 146.

That period shall run from the date on which the non-Community goods are placed under the procedure and shall take account of the time required to carry out the processing operations and to discharge the procedure.

2. The customs authorities may grant an extension, of reasonable duration, of the period specified pursuant to paragraph 1, on submission of a duly justified request by the holder of the authorization.

The authorization may specify that a period which commences in the course of a calendar month, quarter or semester shall end on the last day of a subsequent calendar month, quarter or semester respectively.

3. In cases of prior exportation in accordance with point (b) of Article 150(2), the customs authorities shall specify the period within which the non-Community goods must be declared for the procedure. That period shall run from the date of acceptance of the export declaration relating to the processed products obtained from the corresponding equivalent goods.

Article 180

Temporary re-export for further processing

Subject to authorization by the customs authorities, some or all of the goods placed under the inward processing procedure, or the processed products, may be temporarily re-exported for the purpose of further processing outside the customs territory of the Community, in accordance with the conditions laid down for the outward processing procedure.

Section 3

Outward processing

Article 181

Scope

1. Under the outward processing procedure Community goods may be temporarily exported from the customs territory of the Community in order to undergo processing operations. The processed products resulting from those goods may be released for free circulation with total or partial relief from import duties at the request of the holder of the authorization or any other person established in the customs territory of the Community provided that that person has obtained the consent of the holder of the authorization and the conditions of the authorization are fulfilled.

2. Outward processing shall not be allowed for the following Community goods:
 - (a) goods the export of which gives rise to repayment or remission of import duties;
 - (b) goods which, prior to exportation, were released for free circulation under a duty exemption or at a reduced rate of duty by virtue of their end-use, for as long as the purposes of such end-use have not been fulfilled, unless these goods have to undergo repair operations;
 - (c) goods the export of which gives rise to the granting of export refunds;
 - (d) goods in respect of which a financial advantage other than refunds referred to in point (c) is granted under the common agricultural policy by virtue of the exportation of those goods.

3. In cases not covered by Articles 182 and 183 and where ad valorem duties are involved, the amount of the import duty shall be calculated on the basis of the cost of the processing operation undertaken outside the customs territory of the Community.

The measures designed to amend non-essential elements of this Regulation, by supplementing it, laying down the rules for such calculation and the rules where specific duties are involved shall be adopted in accordance with the regulatory procedure with scrutiny referred to in Article 196(4).

4. The customs authorities shall specify the period within which goods temporarily exported must be re-imported into the customs territory of the Community in the form of processed products, and placed under release for free circulation, in order to be able to benefit from total or partial relief from import duties. They may, extend that period, for a reasonable duration, on submission of a duly justified request by the holder of the authorization.

Article 182

Goods repaired free of charge

1. Where it is established to the satisfaction of the customs authorities that goods have been repaired free of charge, either because of a contractual or statutory obligation arising from a guarantee or because of a manufacturing or material defect they shall be eligible for total relief from import duties.
2. Paragraph 1 shall not apply where account was taken of the manufacturing or material defect at the time when the goods in question were first released for free circulation.

Article 183

Standard exchange system

1. Under the standard exchange system an imported product, hereinafter referred to as a replacement product, may, in accordance with paragraphs 2 to 5, replace a processed product.
2. The customs authorities shall authorize the standard exchange system to be used where the processing operation involves the repair of defective Community goods other than those subject to measures laid down under the common agricultural policy or to the specific arrangements applicable to certain goods resulting from the processing of agricultural products.
3. Replacement products shall have the same eight digit Combined Nomenclature code, the same commercial quality and the same technical characteristics as the defective goods had the latter undergone repair.
4. Where the defective goods have been used before export, the replacement products must also have been used.

The customs authorities shall, however, waive the requirement set out in the first subparagraph if the replacement product has been supplied free of charge, either because of a contractual or statutory obligation arising from a guarantee or because of a material or manufacturing defect.

5. The provisions which would be applicable to the processed products shall apply to the replacement products.

Article 184

Prior importation of replacement products

1. The customs authorities shall, under the conditions they lay down, and at the request of the person concerned, authorize replacement products to be imported before the defective goods are exported.

In the event of such prior importation of a replacement product, a guarantee shall be provided covering the amount of the import duty that would be payable should the defective goods not be exported in accordance with paragraph 2.

2. The defective goods shall be exported within a period of two months from the date of acceptance by the customs authorities of the declaration for the release for free circulation of the replacement products.
3. Where, in exceptional circumstances, the defective goods cannot be exported within the period referred to in paragraph 2, the customs authorities may, at the duly justified request of the person concerned, extend that period for a reasonable duration.
