

Privacy Statement

1. Public consultation on the "Code of Conduct for Interest Representatives"

The objective is to collect suggestions and input on contents of the draft Code of Conduct for Interest Representatives.

2. What personal information do we collect and through which technical means?

When you send in your contributions by e-mail we will collect and hold the following information: your name, your organisation's name and your contact details.

3. Who has access to your information and to whom is it disclosed?

The Secretariat-General will place all contributions on the specific consultation website and this will be publicly accessible.

Received contributions, together with the identity of the contributor, will be published on the Internet, unless the contributor objects to publication of the personal data on the grounds that such publication would harm his or her legitimate interests. In this case the contribution may be published in anonymous form. Otherwise the contribution will not be published and its content might not be taken into account.

4. Contact Information
