Selection Procedure (members)

The participants were contacted individually according to the following criteria: proven competence and experience in training legal practitioners in European law; experience of working for or in training structures or professional bodies dealing with the training of legal professions; representation of all legal professions (judges/prosecutors, court staff/bailiffs, lawyers/notaries); balanced geographical representation (smaller and bigger Member States, different major legal traditions); representation of experience from smaller and bigger training providers; representation of both genders.

Internal Rules of Procedure

Expert groups usually operate informally, without very formal rules. This is the case for this group.
