Additional Information

Activity Report

The Euroguidance network meets twice a year to discuss issues related to the promotion of the European dimension in guidance, with particular reference to mobility, and be informed on the latest relevant developments at European levels. The last meeting took place in September 2011 in Warsaw. The agenda included information from the Executive Agency managing the Euroguidance grant agreements, information from the Commission on the future Education Europe programme, the European Semester, the PLOTEUS and EQF Portals. Furthermore several Polish case examples of guidance were presented. Furthermore the new Euroguidance website was presented and the joint ELGPN/Euroguidance database was discussed. Finally the results of the working groups and the peer learning workshops were discussed.
