Selection Procedure (members)

In addition to the EU Member States, the Candidate Countries and the EFTA countries, the Commission will also allow a limited, selected number of pan-European organisations of key stakeholders from industry, agriculture, environment, health protection, regional and local authorities and others with a proven track record and expertise in EU air policy to take part in the Stakeholder Expert Group. In the interests of transparency, we expect any participating stakeholder organisation to be registered in the Interest Representative Register and subscribing to its Code of Conduct. In order to address the needs of the exercise also other Commission services, other EU bodies (Committee of Regions, Economic and Social Committee), EU agencies such as the European Environment Agency (EEA) and the European Maritime Safety Agency (EMSA), international scientific co-operation bodies or relevant conventions such as World Health Organisation, United Nations Economic Commission for Europe Co-operative Programme for Monitoring and Evaluation of the Long-range Transmission of Air Pollutants in Europe (EMEP) and Convention on Long-Range Transboundary Air Pollution (CLRTAP), and as appropriate EU-funded research programmes and projects will be invited. The meetings will be announced publically and meeting documents will also be made available. Also a wide range of organisations which regularly contribute to EU air policy work will be informed about the meeting directly and is invited to express interest in their participation. Other organisations which are not informed directly for the first meeting can request participation and are considered if they fulfil the above mentioned criteria and if the room capacities for a particular meeting allow. Otherwise, they will be directed to the other parts of the consultation process.
