Commission Expert Group

Name: LIND-Web Editorial Board (E02747)
(Active - Group which operates on a permanent basis)

Policy Area: Languages and multilingualism

Lead DG: DGT - DG Translation

Type: Informal, Permanent

Scope: Limited

Mission: The LIND-Web Editorial Board aims to raise awareness of the Language Industry Web Platform as a major source of facts and figures on the language industry and to encourage industry stakeholders to get involved in the project. They aim to make the Platform more user-friendly and assist the Commission on any issue concerning LIND-Web. The long-term objective of the Board is to surmount the reservations of statisticians and to achieve a modification of the NACE (EU classification of economic activities) classification in order to grant the language industry the visibility it deserves.

Task: Assist the Commission in the development, dissemination of the project and the implementation of concrete actions

Selection Procedure (members)

The Board was created based on a call for expression of interest orally presented during the launch conference of the Platform in November 2010. The selection was made according to the eight sub-sectors of the language industry identified in the study on the Size of the Language Industry in 2009. In addition, emphasis was given to geographic representativeness and gender.

Internal Rules of Procedure

Expert groups usually operate in an informal setting without any formal rules of procedure. This is the case for this group.
