Selection Procedure (members)

Members of the Platform are the tax administrations of the 28 Member States and 15 business, civil society and tax practitioner organisations. The 15 organisations were selected following an open Call for applications on the basis of their experience in providing policy advice and their involvement with issues relevant for the Platform. The organisations have nominated a representative and an alternate, documenting the professional experience and expertise of both persons and indicating their specific competences in the area of international taxation.

Internal Rules of Procedure

The rules of procedure of the Platform are published on its webpage.
