Commission Expert Group

Name: Consumer Safety Network (E00935)
(Active - Group which operates on a permanent basis)

Abbreviation: CSN

Policy Area: Consumer affairs

Lead DG: JUST - DG Justice and Consumers

Type: Informal, Permanent

Scope: Limited

Mission: The Consumer Safety Network is a consultative expert group chaired by the European Commission. Its Members are composed of national experts from the administrations of the 28 Member States and EFTA/EEA countries competent in product safety; candidate countries and selected stakeholders are invited to attend as Observers. The expert group stimulates reflection and discusses topics related to consumer product and service safety and provides a knowledge base for policy work. It facilitates the exchange of expertise and best practices. In recent years, the main areas of discussion have been the safety of consumer products (including joint actions on market surveillance), and consumer services, including fire safety in hotels and relevant data collection. The group meets on average three times per year.

Task: Coordinate with Member States, exchange of views

Provides expertise to the Commission when preparing implementing measures, i.e. before the Commission submits these draft measures to a comitology committee

Selection Procedure (members)

There is no formal selection procedure. In accordance with Article 10 of the General Product Safety Directive, the Group is composed of a European network of the authorities of the Member States competent for product safety and consumer safety in general. An invitation and draft agenda are submitted to the relevant Member State authorities and Observers approximately 2-3 weeks prior to the date of the meeting. It is the competent authorities themselves who select their representative(s) according to the topics to be discussed.

Internal Rules of Procedure

This expert group operates in accordance with Article 10 of the General Product Safety Directive 2001/95/EC without any formal rules of procedure.
