Satta Outside Festival, Šventoji, Lithuania / 9-10 August 2013

Youth on the Move Ambassador

Get to know YoM Ambassador for Lithuania, Rasa Bubulytė.

This well-known singer shares her stories and experiences of working and studying abroad during the Youth on the Move event.

Come and meet her on Friday 9 August (14.00 – 14.20) and on Saturday 10 August (17.50-18.00) at the Youth on the Move tent.

"Lithuania has been strongly affected by the recent changes in the global economic climate, and it is hard for many young Lithuanians to sustain themselves financially while still utilizing their full potential. I strongly believe that getting experience from work and studies abroad and applying that experience back home is crucial in improving these conditions."

Rasa Bubulytė

Get a book or cartoon of yourself travelling in Europe!

Have you ever imagined yourself in another European country? The European Commission, as part of the European Year of Citizens, brings your visions to life with two special activities.

One is called Filmbook, where you can choose costumes from different eras around Europe. Then you'll be filmed in a studio, and receive a very special souvenir – a mini book!

The other captures your image in 3-D and sends you travelling to check out local fashions and culture in different EU destinations. This time the souvenir is a printed cartoon!

Lots of laughs are guaranteed. These activities are open to the public at the Youth on the Move tent on Friday 9 August and Saturday 10 August (13.00-20.00).

Special Events

PROGRAMME

Satta Outside Festival, Šventoji, Lithuania / 9-10 August 2013

Black Ceramics Centre

Develop your creativity and imagination by participating in a ceramics class organised by the Black Ceramics Centre. Don't miss the opportunity to create your own works of art on Friday 9 August (15.00 to 16.00) at the Youth on the Move tent.

Living Library

Do you really want to broaden your perspectives? The Living Library is a method of informal education that encourages social awareness, tolerance and respect for human rights. Participate in the Living Library sessions on Friday 9 August and on Saturday 10 August.

In these sessions, you, the "reader", choose a Living Book – a person from a vulnerable social group who is open to talking about their situation and the discrimination they often face. The reader learns all about the life of the person and the session undoubtedly ends with smiles and a new friendship.

Dance Workshop

The Independent Dancers group from the A. Pulka Physical Theatre from Vilnius comes to the event with two very special dance workshops.

Join them at two workshops on Saturday: first, from 14.00 to 15.00 for an introduction to dance improvisation, and then from 16.00 to 17.00 for a bodywork session! And don't forget to bring a friend!

Study in Lithuania

There's a lot to learn in Lithuania! The Education Exchanges Support Foundation presents their project "Study in Lithuania" through an informative stand and videos. It offers valuable information about studying possibilities in Lithuania and explains the country's higher education system - you'll be surprised by what you didn't know about it!
