The second column shows performance relative to that of the EU in 2023. Colours next to the column show matching colour codes: dark green: above 125% of the performance of the EU in 2023; light green: between 100% and 125%; light orange: between 70% and 100%; dark orange: below 70%. The next columns show performance change over time between 2016 and 2023 and between 2022 and 2023, with scores relative to those of the EU in 2016. Positive (negative) performance changes are shown in green (red).

SWITZERLAND is an Innovation Leader with performance at 139.6% of the EU average. Performance is above the average of the Innovation Leaders. Performance is decreasing and is lower than the rate of increase of the EU (8.5%-points). The country's performance lead over the EU is becoming smaller.

The graph on the left shows the evolution of innovation performance over time against the performance of the country in 2016. Innovation performance, after an initial increase, dropped in 2019, and then increased between 2020 and 2021, after which performance declined in 2022 and 2023, leading to a 0% performance increase in 2023.

The graphs below show the evolution of innovation performance in the different innovation dimensions against the performance of the country in 2016. Performance improved strongest for Finance and support. Performance declined for Research systems, Innovators, Intellectual assets, Employment impacts, Sales impacts and Environmental sustainability.

Structural differences with the EU are shown below:

- Switzerland has higher per capita income, but a slower growing economy. Business services takes up a larger share of the economy, with SMEs accounting for a larger share of turnover.
- Enterprise births, Entrepreneurial Activity, Top R&D spenders, and Buyer sophistication add positively to the innovation climate, FDI net inflows add negatively.
- Information on Innovation profiles is not available.
- Entrepreneurial training and government procurement are above the EU average as drivers of research and innovation.
- Information on Climate change related indicators is not available.
