

EUROPEAN COUNCIL OF NON-PROFIT ASSOCIATIONS (CEDAG)

 (20 Years supporting civil society)	Name of the organisation: European council of non-profit associations (CEDAG) Type : European platform Membership : The European council of non-profit associations members network has significantly grown through the years, up to 32 national non-profit umbrellas organizations in 21 different European countries. Brief description of the activities : The European Council for non-profit associations (Comité européen des associations d'intérêt général) was created in Brussels in 1989 by a number of non-profit associations, civil society and umbrella organizations. It is de facto a network to voice and gather the non-profit sector. « CEDAG's success story » Acting within the "Europe for citizens" programme, in partnership with the Education, audiovisual and culture executive agency, has been a golden opportunity to seize so as to dynamise our platform, better the quality of our existing networks and enlarge our political vision to new sectors and European countries." Website: www.cedag-eu.org Mail address : cedag@cedag.eu Member of the Group: M. Patrick De Bucquois Function : President Phone number: 02 230 39 27 or 02 230 00 31 Email address: patrick.debucquois@cedag.eu Deputy Member (if applicable): Mrs. Ariane Rodert Function : Vice-President Email address: ariane.rodert@socialforum.se
--	---