

SOLIDAR

Name of the organisation: SOLIDAR

Type : civil society organisation

Membership : 42 members in Europe and present in 90 countries all over the world

Brief description of the activities:

SOLIDAR is a network of social and economic justice NGOs working in co-development and international cooperation, social policy and social service provision, and life-long learning.

With members active in over 90 countries worldwide, SOLIDAR works both in Europe and internationally in alliance with trade unions, organisations of the labour movement and civil society for an equitable and sustainable world. It carries out projects in cooperation with its member organisations and partners, organises seminars and conferences, and works to influence policy at European, regional and international level.
