

DISCLAIMER

The information provided in this “Database on alternatives to methyl bromide for QPS” [hereafter referred to as “Alternatives Database”] was summarized from publically available documents, with a reference to those relevant documents where further information can be obtained if necessary.

The Alternatives Database is intended to be information for the Parties to the Montreal Protocol, technical experts and other interested stakeholders.

Considerable effort has been made to ensure that the information provided in this Alternatives Database is an accurate summary. In any event, this information is made available to users of this Alternatives Database and all other persons and entities on the basis that:

- 1) Persons associated with the compilation, writing, editing, approval or publication of, or any other kind of work in connection with the Alternatives Database decline any and all responsibility for any inaccuracy, error, omission, delay or any other kind of inadequacy, deficiency, or flaw in, or in relation to, the information; and
- 2) Without limiting (1) above, fully exclude any and all liability of any kind, on the part of any and all of them, to any person or entity (whether a user of this Alternatives Database or not) that chooses to rely upon the information.

The contents of the Database do not represent the views of the European Commission. The findings, interpretations and conclusions expressed in the database are therefore the sole responsibility of Touchdown Consulting Brussels.

Touchdown Consulting and the European Commission decline any liability with respect to the use made by anyone of the information contained in the Database. The information in the Database represents Touchdown Consulting’s best knowledge without constituting any express or implied guarantee or warranty of any kind, including but not limited to the accuracy, the completeness or the relevance of the Database.

Nothing contained in the Database shall be construed as conferring any license or right under any patent or intellectual property rights. The information related to the products mentioned in the Database is given for information purposes only.

No guarantee or warranty is provided that the alternative treatments described and/or information provided is adapted to any specific use, performance or result and that the alternative treatments described and/or information do not infringe any intellectual property rights. The user should perform tests to determine the suitability for a particular purpose. The final choice of a treatment and/or information, as well as the investigation of any possible violation of intellectual property rights, remains the sole responsibility of the user.
