

Case AT. 40501 – Zeppelin

After careful investigation, the Commission has, for priority reasons, decided to close its antitrust investigation opened in October 2017 against six insurance broking companies active in the aviation and aerospace insurance and reinsurance sector.