COMP/M.6045 – JCI / CRH

SECTION 1.2

Description of the concentration

The proposed concentration consists in the acquisition of sole control over the CRH group of companies ("CRH") by Johnson Controls, Inc. ("JCI"). CRH is a global manufacturer of metal structures and mechanisms for car seats as well as other automotive components, such as crash active head rests and steering column adjusters. JCI is a global supplier of automotive products and systems and of facility management and control systems and services. Its "Automotive Experience" business manufactures various components for automotive interiors, including complete car seats and seat components, such as metal structures and mechanisms for car seats.
