COMP/M.6200 - APMM / BOLLORE / DOUALA INTERNATIONAL TERMINAL JV

SECTION 1.2

Description of the concentration

The notified transaction is the acquisition of joint control by A.P. Møller-Maersk A/S ("APMM") and Bolloré S.A. over a joint venture, Douala International Terminal ("DIT"). DIT has been granted a concession by the Port Authority of Douala to develop, manage and operate a container terminal and provide services to common users at the Douala Port in Cameroon.

APMM is active globally in containerised liner shipping, terminal services, inland transportation, logistics, harbour towage, tankers, oil and gas exploration and production, and retail and air transport. Bolloré S.A. is a French group controlled by the holding company Financière de l'Odet, which it itself controlled by the Bolloré family. Bolloré S.A. is active in the manufacture of plastic films, ticket machine terminals and systems and batteries, supercapacitors and electric vehicles, transportation and logistics, fuel distribution, communication and media and commercialisation of plantations.

The transaction is notified under the simplified procedure and does not give rise to any competition concerns.
