M.10097 — AMD/Xilinx

SECTION 1.2

Description of the concentration

This notification concerns the acquisition of sole control of Xilinx, Inc. (“Xilinx”) by Advanced Micro Devices, Inc. (“AMD”) pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Merger dated 26 October 2020. The business activities of AMD and Xilinx are as follows:

- AMD is a global semiconductor company headquartered in Santa Clara, California, United States. AMD is active primarily in the supply of central processing units (“CPUs”), also known as microprocessors, based on the x86 instruction set; graphics processing units (“GPUs”); and accelerated processing units (“APUs”) that combine a CPU with a GPU on one chip. AMD also supplies semi-custom processors and embedded processors.
- Xilinx is a global semiconductor company headquartered in San Jose, California, United States. Xilinx is primarily active in the supply of field programmable gate arrays (“FPGAs”) that customers can program after fabrication to perform desired logic functions, as well as programmable FPGA-based SoCs, which combine processor-based systems with Xilinx FPGAs in a single device.
