

CORRIGENDUM

TREN/A1/31-1-2009

The European Commission would like to inform interested parties of two changes to the text of Tender specifications attached to the invitation to tender TREN/A1/31-1-2009 Framework contract for long-range energy modelling for the period up to 2050.

On page 11, section 1.3.3 Report format and publication

For: 2 copies of the reports shall be supplied in paper form and one copy in electronic form, either in MS Word, HTML format or Excel. The most important numerical annexes have also to be provided in paper form, while extensive numerical annexes should be provided on CD or DVD in agreement with the Commission.

Read: 2 copies of the reports shall be supplied in paper form and one copy in electronic form, either in MS Word, HTML format or Excel. The most important numerical annexes have also to be provided in paper form, while extensive numerical annexes should be provided on CD or DVD in agreement with the Commission. The reporting should be done in English.

On page 19, section IV.2.2 Technical and professional capacity-References required

For: Tenderers must demonstrate:

- Professional capacity in economic modelling and analysis;
- Working experience related to energy and transport or environment policy in the European Union
- Technical experience in computer modelling of at least five years related to the topics of this framework contract, in particular: energy, economy, transport, emissions
- Experience in the fields of energy efficiency and renewable energy sources

Read: Tenderers must demonstrate:

- Professional capacity in economic modelling and analysis;
- Working experience related to energy and transport or environment policy in the European Union
- Technical experience in computer modelling of at least five years related to the topics of this framework contract, in particular: energy, economy, transport, emissions
- Experience in the fields of energy efficiency and renewable energy sources
- Excellent command of the English language