

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

KICs Project Officer (AD6) EIT (Budapest)

Ref.: EIT/TA/2014/92

The European Institute of Innovation and Technology (EIT), established on 11 March 2008 by the European Parliament and the Council, aims to become a flagship for excellence in European innovation. The EIT is the first European initiative to integrate fully the three sides of the 'Knowledge Triangle' (higher education, research, business-innovation) and will seek to stand out as a world-class innovation-oriented reference model, inspiring and driving change in existing education and research institutions. Conceived with a clear market-driven focus, the EIT will favour sustainable economic growth and job creation throughout the Union by generating new skills, products, services and business responding both to public demand and to the needs of the knowledge economy.

The EIT is now organising a call for applications with a view to establishing a reserve list for Temporary Staff (TA) for the position of KICs Project Officer. The place of employment will be Budapest (Hungary), where the EIT seat is located.

More information about the EIT, its structure and activities can be found on: <http://eit.europa.eu>.

The job

1 Profile

To further enhance its impact and to incentivize the innovations needed to meet new societal challenges, the EIT will gradually expand its portfolio of Knowledge and Innovation Communities (KICs) from 2014 to 2020. The creation of five new KICs will be launched in three waves.

The themes to be addressed by the new KICs are:

- Innovation for healthy living and active ageing
- Raw materials - sustainable exploration, extraction, processing, recycling and substitution
- Food4Future - sustainable supply chain from resources to consumers
- Added-value manufacturing
- Urban mobility

The KICs Project Officer will support, monitor and assess the portfolio of activities of both existing and future KICs.

1.1 Tasks

The tasks of the KICs Project Officer will include:

- Contributing to the continuous monitoring of the KIC portfolio of activities, measuring their impact and preparing further improvements.
- Assessing the Business plans of the KICs.
- Supporting the process of allocation of the annual grants.
- Supporting the newly designated KICs in their set-up phase.

- Ensuring the production of accurate and timely reports on progress against targets through an agreed set of indicators.
- Contributing to the assessment of the final report of the annual grant to each KIC.
- Providing input for the annual review of KIC activities by the Governing Board.
- Promoting cross-KIC collaboration in cross-cutting areas of particular relevance for the fulfilment of the EIT mission.
- Providing input to consultations, questions and queries put forward by the KICs.
- Representing the EIT in selected KIC's meetings.
- Supporting the development of quality procedures, indicators and benchmarks for monitoring (and assessment of) the performance of KIC activities.
- Liaising with the European Commission services, in particular DG EAC regarding general EU policy orientations.
- Any other tasks corresponding to the grade and function, as deemed necessary in the interest of the service.

obliging you to repeat the whole process. Once the deadline has passed, you will no longer be able to register.

No supporting documents are required at this stage – these will be required later from candidates invited to an interview (see section 5.3).

On completion of your online registration, you will receive on screen a registration number, which you must note. Once you receive this number, the registration process is finished. This will be your reference number in all matters concerning your application. Please note that if you do not receive a number, your application has not been registered!

An acknowledgement of your application will be sent to the e-mail address indicated in your application. It is your responsibility to verify that you provide the correct e-mail address.

Deadline for applications: 3 March 2014 at midday (12:00 Budapest time)

5 Steps of the selection procedure

5.1 Admission to the selection procedure

After the deadline for online registration, the selection committee will check the submitted applications against the general and specific conditions described in Section 2. Applications satisfying these conditions will then be assessed against the selection criteria described in Section 3.

5.2 Initial assessment of the applications

The selection committee will assess each eligible application according to the qualifications and training, professional experience and motivation of the candidate with respect to the profile described in Section 1.1.

5.3 Interview

Upon completion of the profiles' evaluation, the most suitable candidates for the post - based on the highest scores in the pre-selection screening - will be invited to an interview, which will be organised in Budapest. Details of the time, date and address of the interview will be communicated to the candidates in due time.

Candidates invited to an interview will be requested to submit by email, prior to the interview, a non-certified copy of their diploma(s) and evidence of their professional experience, clearly indicating the starting and finishing dates, the function(s) and the exact nature of the duties carried out. Prior to contract signature, the successful candidate(s) will be required to provide original versions of documents proving the eligibility criteria.

The selection committee will carry out an assessment of candidates invited to an interview according to the selection criteria described in Section 3. The interview will be conducted in English. Candidates may also be required to sit a written test in English on the day of the interview. This might take the form of a case study, multiple-choice questionnaire and/or oral presentation.

The written tests may consist of the following components, in accordance with the level and profile of the position advertised:

- Specific competencies with reference to the profile,
- General aptitudes and language abilities to the extent necessary for the performance of the duties,
- Knowledge of European integration and institutions, the European Institute of Innovation and Technology.

These components can be combined.

5.4 Verification of documents and scrutiny

The candidates' application will be checked against supporting documents provided in order to confirm the accuracy and eligibility of the application.

If, at any stage in the procedure, it is established that the information in an application has been knowingly falsified, the candidate will be disqualified from the selection process.

Candidates will also be disqualified if they:

- do not meet all the eligibility criteria;
- do not provide all the required supporting documents.

5.5 Reserve list

The selection committee will place the most suitable eligible candidates on a draft reserve list. This draft will be submitted to the Appointing Authority of the EIT for approval. The adopted reserve list, which will be in order of merit, will be valid until 31 December 2014. Reserve lists may be extended by decision of the Appointing Authority of the EIT. Prior to being offered a post, candidates on a reserve list may be required to undergo further evaluation by the EIT (e.g. including a further interview).

Inclusion on a reserve list does not imply any entitlement to employment in the EIT. Moreover, recruitment will be subject to budgetary availability.

5.6 Information

The text of this Call for applications contains all the information required. Nevertheless, if you have a question, please consult the Guide for applicants on the EIT website. If you have further questions, please contact the EIT via jobs@eit.europa.eu, clearly mentioning the reference of the vacancy notice, your registration number and the nature of your request.

Please note that due to the large volume of applications received, only candidates selected for the interviews will be contacted.

Other important information

6 General information

6.1 Equal opportunities

The EIT applies a policy of equal opportunities and accepts applications without discrimination on any grounds.

6.2 Selection committee

A selection committee will be appointed to carry out the evaluation of applications to this vacancy. Please note that the Selection Committee's internal proceedings are strictly confidential and that any contact with its members is strictly forbidden, and may lead to disqualification from the selection process.

6.3 Approximate timetable

The selection process may take a few months to be completed; further information about the status of the procedure will be published on the EIT website.

6.4 Recruitment conditions / Career

Successful candidates may be offered a contract as a temporary agent in accordance with Article 2f of the Conditions of employment of other servants of the European Communities for an initial period of 5 years. The place of employment will be Budapest.

The contract may be renewed for a further period of up to 5 years.

6.5 Conditions of employment

- Installation allowance: equivalent to two months' basic salary for staff entitled to the household allowance; and one month's basic salary for officials who are not entitled to the household allowance. This allowance is paid upon successful completion of the probationary period
- Reimbursement of removal costs
- Initial temporary daily subsistence allowance: Staff entitled to the household allowance: €39.17 per day for a period of 180 days; if you are a probationer, the daily subsistence allowance is granted for the period of probation plus one month. Staff not entitled to the household allowance: €31.58 per day for a period of 120 days. This allowance is not paid beyond the date on which staff members effectively remove their belongings to Budapest.
- Annual travel allowance: Staff are entitled to be paid each calendar year a sum equivalent to the cost of travel from the place of employment to the place of origin for themselves and, if they are entitled to the household allowance, for their spouse and dependant(s). This is a flat-rate payment, based on an allowance per kilometre of distance between the official's place of employment and place of recruitment or origin

Other features of working conditions applicable at the EIT are:

- Annual leave entitlement of two days per calendar month plus additional days depending on grade and age. 2,5 days' home leave per annum if you are entitled to the expatriation or foreign residence allowance
- General and applicable technical training plus professional development opportunities
- EU Joint Sickness and Insurance Scheme, accident and occupational disease insurance coverage, unemployment and invalidity allowance
- After 10 years of service, staff members are eligible to receive pension from the European Union Pension Scheme

⁸ This estimate already includes a correction coefficient of 76.1%, currently applied to salary and allowances paid in Budapest. Deductions for the community tax and contributions for medical insurance, pension and unemployment insurance are already included in this estimate. Salaries are exempted from national tax. The salary can be paid in Euro or in the local currency: Hungarian Forint (HUF).

6.6 Independence and declarations of interest

The job holder will be required to enter into a commitment to act independently in the public interest and to make complete declarations of any direct or indirect interests that might be considered prejudicial to his or her independence.

6.7 Appeal procedure

Candidates considering that their interests have been prejudiced in the selection process by a particular decision may request a review of, or launch an appeal against the decision adversely affecting them. Further information about the appeal procedures can be found in the Guide for Applicants on the EIT website.

6.8 Protection of personal data

As the body responsible for organising the competition, the EIT ensures that applicants' personal data are processed as required by Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 December 2000 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data by the Community institutions and bodies and on the free movement of such data (Official Journal of the European Communities, L 8 of 12 January 2001). This applies in particular to the confidentiality and security of such data.
