A New Start

COM(2014)910

adopted at the meeting on 18 March 2015

1. The European Union Affairs Committee of the Senate of the Republic of Poland (EUAC) has examined the Commission Work Programme 2015 and familiarised themselves with the government's position on the matter.
2. Expressing its support for European Commission's efforts to overcome the crisis, boost economic growth and create new jobs, EUAC recognises the following initiatives as priorities:
 - Promoting integration and employability in the labour market (Annex I, item 2).
 - Mid-term review of the "Europe 2020" strategy (Annex I, item 3).
 - Digital Single Market (DSM) Package (Annex I, item 4).
 - Strategic Framework for the Energy Union (Annex I, item 5).
 - Labour Mobility Package (Annex I, item 8).
 - Trade and Investment Strategy for Jobs and Growth (Annex I, item 15).
3. At the same time, EUAC supports EC's commitment to improve the regulatory environment, counteract excessive regulation, avoid excessive red tape and administrative burdens and focus its efforts on implementing existing legislation.
