OPINION

of the ROMANIAN SENATE, on the Proposal for a Regulation of the European Parliament and of the Council on the establishment of an evaluation mechanism to verify application of the Schengen *acquis

COM (2010) 624 final

The Senate of Romania has checked the compliance with the subsidiarity and proportionality principles of the Proposal for a Regulation of the European Parliament and of the Council on the establishment of an evaluation mechanism to verify application of the Schengen *acquis - COM (2010) 624 final, according to the provisions of the Treaty of Lisbon (protocol no.2).

Taking into account the report of our permanent Committee on Defence, Public Order and National Security, the Plenum of the Senate, during its session of the 22-nd of December 2010, has found that the mentioned proposal, elaborated according to Article 77(2)(e) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union (TFEU), is compliant with the subsidiarity and proportionality principles, taking into consideration that the objective of evaluation mechanism is designed to maintain mutual trust between Member States in their capacity to apply, effectively and efficiently, the accompanying measures making it possible to maintain an area without internal borders, cannot be reasonable reached by the Member States by themselves and does not exceed what is necessary to achieve this objective.
