

The European Commission organises seminars for judges on various aspects of telecoms regulation.

The seminars provide a forum for judges, regulators, the European Commission, the Court of Justice and academics to exchange experience on:

- the development of EU telecoms rules
- the role of national judiciaries in consistently implementing the EU telecoms rules across the EU
- the role of national and European judges in the regulation of the telecoms sector
- the enforcement and harmonisation of telecoms rules in the EU.

Past seminars for national judges:

- Broadband deployment & spectrum management in the Digital Single Market: from policy to judicial control - 2 December 2013 [1], Brussels.
- Predictable market regulation and effective right of appeal. The role of the judiciary in contributing to regulatory certainty - 26 November 2012 [2], Brussels.
- Implementing the revised regulatory framework in electronic communications - 28 November 2011 [3], Brussels.
- Recent developments of the EU telecoms rules - 29 November 2010 [4], Brussels.
- Challenges following the forthcoming reform of the EU telecommunications rules - 30 November 2009 [5], Brussels.
