

Digital Single Market

18/05/2015 The Digital Champion of Bulgaria

Gergana Passy

Gergana Passy is the Digital Champion for Bulgaria. Her priorities are education in e-skills and free access to internet. Gergana thinks that access to the internet must be free for all Europeans.

Get in touch

E-mail

gerganapassy [at] gmail [dot] com

Twitter

@GerganaPassy [1]

Website

Paneuropa [2]

Page Contents

- Biography

Biography

Gergana Passy is the founder & President of PanEuropean Union Bulgaria [2], politician, former Minister for European Affairs and deputy Foreign Minister.

Gergana is also the founder of the Digital National Alliance \(DNA\) [3] - the National Coalition for Digital Jobs in Bulgaria - which was launched in June 2014 - one of the one of its latest initiatives is the joint national campaign with the Ministry of education The Future is Code [4].

She says: "There is a desperate need in Bulgarian schools for e-skills and I will try to make that change a reality. My second goal is to get all public spaces to become free Wi-Fi zones, as Europeans need guaranteed access to internet."

Gergana Passy on her priorities

Share this page

Source URL: <https://ec.europa.eu/digital-single-market/en/digital-champion-bulgaria>

Links

[1] <http://twitter.com/GerganaPassy>

[2] <http://www.paneuropa.bg/>

[3] <http://ec.europa.eu/digital-single-market/en/digital-national-alliance-dna-bulgaria>

[4] <http://futureiscode.com/>