Seminar for national judges: predictable market regulation and effective right of appeal

EventsBrussels, Belgium26/11/2012

Part of the series of seminars for national judges focusing on various aspects of telecoms regulation have been organised on behalf of the European Commission. Seminars are organised since 2005.

These seminars are intended to provide a forum for judges, regulators, the Commission, the Court of Justice and academics to inform, explain, and exchange experiences, views and visions with regard to:

- the development of EU telecoms rules;
- the national judiciaries' role in furthering consistency in the regulation of the electronic communications sector and the involvement of national and European judges in the regulation of the sector; and
- the enforcement and harmonisation of e-communications regulation in the EU.
