Digital Agenda for Europe: Reality or still a challenge

The conference aims to outline the activities along the guidelines of the “Digital Agenda for Europe” that will help the countries in the region to transform one of its weaknesses into an advantage and overcome the gap in connectivity at national and regional level. Special guest of the event will be the EU Commissioner responsible for the Digital Agenda and Vice-president of the European Commission Neelie Kroes, who will inaugurate the conference. In addition, Bulgaria will host the next Digital Champions meeting which will take place alongside the conference in Sofia.
