Digital Single Market

Event Brussels, Belgium 10 February 2011

ICT and rural areas: building the knowledge society at grassroots level

Menu

This event will provide a useful platform for discussing the implementation of ICT policies in rural areas and how policy has been implemented in different Member States. The main focus will be on rural development policy and the event will look at both broadband infrastructure and its utilisation. It is organised by the European Network for Rural Development (EN RD).
