

Digital Single Market

Reports and studies 1 March 2013

Report on an individual-centric Digital Agenda for Europe

This paper reports on actions already taken and initiatives planned to enhance the individuals dimension of the Digital Agenda for Europe (DAE). For this purpose, individual end-users are defined as individuals in their dimension of human beings, citizens and consumers. The report presents five lines of action to enhance the DAE's individuals dimension.

Share this page

Source URL: <https://ec.europa.eu/digital-single-market/en/news/report-individual-centric-digital-agenda-europe>