The Maltese Communications Authority <sup>[1]</sup> launched recently two new strategies to tackle digital exclusion and to bring more businesses online.

The strategies called "Networked society" <sup>[2]</sup> and "Networked Enterprise" <sup>[3]</sup> are promoting the idea that every Maltese citizen should have access to ICTs, and to skills required, to fully participate in the "Networked Society". The strategies cover the period 2012-2015.

In April 2012, Malta appointed Mr. Phillip Micallef as Digital Champion.
