Cerdanya's joint cross-border Hospital to offer healthcare services to Catalonia and France

News Article06/09/2012

The new centre will significantly improve the healthcare provision of this border area, which, owing to its location in the mountains, suffers from accessibility problems. The hospital will cater for a permanent population of 30 000, as well as influxes of over 100 000 more during holiday seasons. The hospital is planned to be ready to welcome new patients from end of 2012.
